Austin Relies On Verbal Assurances And Resigns Cohen Named Acting Manager

By Robert E. Finneran
Editor

With assurances from a majority of the selectmen that he would remain on the payroll for another six months, Town Manager J. Maynard Austin submitted his resignation to the board Tuesday night.

Assistant Manager Sheldon S. Cohen was called to the meeting by the board and made acting town manager about an hour after Austin resign.

The resignation culminated a year of continuing controversy regarding the tenure of the town manager.

When he submitted his resignation on Tuesday, Austin was unable to get assurance in writing that he would remain on the payroll as an advisor or administrative assistant, accepting only the fact that at least three members of the board were committed to see that such action was carried out by the acting manager.

Chairman Susan T. Poore opposed the acceptance of the resignation, "because it contains contingencies, I cannot support." She said there was little doubt that she did not support Austin's administration of the town.

Mrs. Poore also voted in opposition to the appointment of Cohen as acting manager, based purely on the fact that it was her belief that the interim position should be a passive one and not an active administration as desired by her three colleagues. Selectman Richard J. Bowen had to leave the meeting before the vote was taken, thus not recorded. He had said prior to the vote that he favored a passive or ministerial operation for the acting manager.

The proposal offered Tuesday night by Austin was for retention of his services, outside of town hall, for a period approximating four months. He is entitled to two months vacation time, thus a total of six months in all.

Should he obtain employment elsewhere during this period, he would immediately step down and be removed from the payroll, Austin advised.

Austin sought the resignation route in a meeting over a week ago with Selectman Richard J. Bowen. The decision followed a year in which he was notified in January that he would not receive renewal of his term when it expired in August. In April, with a new membership on the board, it was announced he would be retained for another two years. But in August, the majority of the board found there were apparently legal problems to anything less than a five year appointment.

Bowen a week ago, in an executive session with his colleagues, went over the scenario for Austin's resignation and it appeared agreeable.

Wednesday night, Austin and the board met, with the manager seeking some assurance, preferably in writing, that he would be given the six months provisions.

That meeting ended with only Selectmen Edward M. Harris and Albert Cole, Jr., affording some assurance to the manager. Both were elected in March based on their advocating retention of Austin.

On Saturday, the board and Austin met again, this time to discuss legalities involved. Town Counsel Alfred S. Daniels had advised that if Austin were retained, the Bureau of Accounts would insist on a job description, assignment of specific tasks and some production evidence.

Also discussed was time accrued by

School Closings Eyed

By Linda S. Corbett

The shutting down of a school turned up this week as only one of four prime answers to declining enrollments in the elementary grades.

In a preliminary report to the school committee Monday night, the Declining Enrollment Committee (DEC) noted that even if it were to opt for a school closing it would not be for several years. Furthermore, it would most likely not be Shaw-shen, the school eyed last spring for possible closing because of the severe drop in pupils and the high cost of pupil figures there.

DEC found that the closing of Shaw-shen or Doherty as schools would lose the town somewhere in the neighborhood of a quarter million dollars in state funds, because renovations of those schools four years ago have not been paid for.

DEC's other main alternatives involve changing some district lines, shifting around some grades, and building some temporary classrooms at the high school complex. The goal of all is to equalize resources as soon as possible, as well as to equalize numbers.

While the study group found some schools to be overcrowded and others underused, they also noted a strong differential in resources. They would recommend, for instance, that each elementary school have three "special" rooms for art, special needs and labs by the 1980's. Presently, Bancroft has six special rooms while Sanborn has one and South, none.

The preliminary report will now be sent home to parents in preparation for a public hearing to be held next Thursday at 7:30 p.m. in West Elementary School.

The committee will incorporate the public's reaction into their final report and recommendations which they'll submit to the school committee in mid-November for action to follow in December.

DEC Chairman Jerry Silverman led off Monday's session by noting that the whole committee of 27 to 28 people had been meeting in subcommittees through the summer, concentrating on population figures, the elementary and secondary schools, transportation, Stowe and Jackson school and real estate.

While charged with studying the declining enrollment in elementary schools, he said they felt they couldn't ignore the secondary problems.

The truth of the matter is, Silverman said, that secondary enrollment is still reaching its peak, while elementary enrollment is decreasing.

Committeeman Joe Baglio reported on population projections that show enroll-

Recycling Totals Set Record Pace

The Andover Recycling Committee reports that townspeople have recycled a record breaking 68½ tons of newspaper during the month of September. The usual monthly tonnage is 55-57.

Another encouraging note is the fact that Andover received $15 per ton for newspaper in September as compared to $12 per ton in the past. The glass and cans tonnage has held steady averaging 25 tons per month.

With the new yellow Recycling Calendars available in Andover stores now, more townspeople should be contributing to the convenient, curbside recycling program. There are indications of new markets developing for recycled newspaper which means that Andover's newspaper will be in greater demand and the town will also be paid more dollars per ton.

A few guidelines must be explained so that all recyclable material can be utilized.

— Only corrugated cardboard may be put out with newspapers; not other types of cardboard, such as shoe boxes.

— Mixed paper, such as stationary or school paper, must not be put with newspaper and magazines.

— Do not stack newspapers on top of regular garbage. Place newspapers in a separate pile so that recyclables may easily be distinguished from regular garbage.

It is important to observe these procedures, otherwise the recycling pickup contractor must sort the load at the plant to prevent contamination in the recycling process. If this contamination continues to be a growing problem in Andover, a reduction in the dollars per ton paid to the town will result.

Careful source separation by each household will benefit the Town and maximize natural resources.

Coffee For Historians

On Tuesday Oct. 25 at 10 a.m. the Andover Historical Society will offer a coffee hour featuring a talk and exhibit on theorem paintings and old water colors.

Theorem painting was widely taught in girls' private schools around 1830. It was a technique based on stencil painting.

Curator John Brucksch

will display and discuss these paintings. The program is under the direction of Mrs. Reta Buchan, chairman of the Society's research and training committee. The public is invited.

The Good News And Bad News

Supt. Kenneth R. Seifert told the school committee Tuesday night that no Andover kindergartners had to be turned away from school Monday, after the Oct. 15 deadline, for lack of immunization records.

He said, however, that records are still incomplete for scores of older pupils who must be immunized by Nov. 1 or be sent home from school per a new state law.

He said clinics will be set up in the various schools later this month so those who don't have records can bring them up to date.

Committeeman Casimir Kolaski asked if it wouldn't be worthwhile to start an ongoing immunization program through the schools, and Seifert replied that he would be working with several local doctors and the Health Department in that direction.

He said the number of people in the community who don't have diphtheria shots, for instance, would be surprisingly large, and that there may be "certain diseases waiting in the wings" for local residents who aren't prepared.

Search On For Assistant Superintendent

Advertisements for an assistant superintendent was published this week, and Supt. Kenneth R. Seifert told the school committee the word of Andover's need has also gone out to all college placement bureaus east of the Mississippi.

He said 25 applications have been received so far, well ahead of the Nov. 4 deadline. He said Nov. 15 to 25 has been set aside for interviews, and that he hoped that an appointment could be made before Christmas, if a suitable candidate is found.

He said that not all of the applicants were from "outside" the system.

Schools Pass Fire Inspection

Fire inspections have been made of Andover schools and Supt. Seifert reports that they were generally found "in good order."

One of the problem spots is Jackson School, home of the Reading

Department and Chapter 766, where the inspectors found overcrowding of paper materials to dictate that smoking be confined to certain areas.

There were also some questionable maintenance areas at Andover High and West Jr. High.

Seifert noted that the problems are immediately referred to the respective principals and to Plant Engineer Al Hart for correction.

Bus Drivers To Get Closer Eye

The school committee last week added a new section to its bus bidding policy, which charges the superintendent to establish "appropriate criteria for satisfactory performance by school bus contractors." Any documented instances of unsatisfactory performance are to be promptly reported to the school committee.

Some committee members indicated that "undocumented" reports of profanity and other inappropriate behavior by some drivers had been related to them recently by parents.

766 Fares Well In Andover

According to Supt. Kenneth R. Seifert, Andover stands "very well" in its Chapter 766 program following a recent audit by the state.

He said the overall report from the state was very positive, and he added that the state hadn't asked to come in on its own to investigate, but that the local program had invited the audit.

He said several minor suggestions made in the report are already being carried out, including improved administrative participation in core evaluations

Dr. Roddy To Discuss Shawsheen

The first meeting of the season for the Andover Historical Society will feature Dr. Edward G.

Roddy, Jr., professor of American History at Merrimack College, who will give a talk and slide presentation on the "Origin and Early Years of Shawsheen Village."

Dr. Roddy, who lives in Andover, graduated from Harvard College in 1947 and received his doctorate from Georgetown University in American History in 1961.

In 1975, Dr. Roddy received a grant from the Mass. Council for Humanities and Public Policy which made possible his study of the unusual community developed by William Wood of the American Woolen Co.

The meeting will be held Thursday, Oct. 20, at 8 at society headquarters, Blanchard House, 97 Main St. Members and their guests are welcome.

Arthur Muldoon is chairman of the society's 1977 program committee.

Back To School At Doherty

The Doherty School PTO will sponsor a Back-to-School Night Thursday, Oct. 20 at 7:30 p.m. Parents are invited to meet Lois Haslem, principal, the faculty, and PTO Executive Board.

The annual PTO membership drive will continue for all who have not joined. Dues will be used to support PTO programs during the year.

There will be a craft table, and refreshments will be served by first and second grade mothers along with the PTO hospitality committee.

Town Meeting Set For Monday Night

The annual October town meeting will be gavelled to order Monday, Oct. 24, at 7:30 p.m. in Memorial Auditorium of East Junior High school, with voters facing 27 articles in the main warrant and six additional items in a special meeting agenda.

While there are several financial items commanding the attention of the voters, along with street acceptances, and some bylaw changes on the agenda, prime item is expected to be the last article in the warrant dealing with a dog leash law.

The leash law has always been an attraction whenever it appears on a town meeting warrant and Monday's session is expected to be no different.

A new bylaw was approved at the annual town meeting in May, but later rejected by the attorney general's office on the basis of insufficient advance warning to the voters of the regulations approved.

At the Monday session, Citizens for Humane Dog Control will offer a more liberal leash law, while Sidney P. White, proponent of the law approved by the May meeting, will again offer amendments.

Principal money item in the warrant is one seeking $150,000 for an equalization program for the town. The item was rejected at the annual town meeting in May and brought back with the endorsement of the selectmen and Finance Committee. The assessors want to revalue the town and update records for what they say will represent a maintenance of the fair share assessment practices of the town adopted in 1957. The town was last revalued ten years ago.

Top money item in the special meeting warrant is a request for $20,000 for the health department to use consultants working on the subsurface sanitary system installations in the town.

The special warrant will be acted upon beginning at 9 p.m. Monday.

Moderator William A. Dalton will preside at the session and will, no doubt, be called upon to rule on the validity of amendments to the dog bylaw issues. Atty. Dalton is expected to also confer with the attorney general's office prior to the meeting to make a determination as to acceptability of amendments.

Town officials have planned for a two-night session, recognizing that the agenda may not be completed in one night and following a general guideline of halting business about 10:30 p.m.

Should the meeting extend toward the 10:30 hour, there will be a move to adjourn to Tuesday night, in order to allow full discussion and debate on the leash law issue, which is the last item in the warrant.

The Finance Committee report and recommendations on the warrant items have been mailed to residents of the community.

Community Christmas

The Andover Chamber of Commerce is planning many activities for the Christmas season. The focus is going to be on the downtown area and will involve various groups in the town. The goal is to bring the town to Main Street to enjoy the season as an entire community.

There will be a considerable intensity of lights through an increase in wattage of more than 100 percent. The lights are now being inspected to be certain of full use of existing decorations. New decorations will be purchased for the Town Hall to highlight the building as the central force of the Town.

The elementary school students will make Christmas ornaments that will be placed on an indoor tree in the lobby and the two live trees adorning the front of the building. A creche and laurel will also be part of the new decoration scheme. Caroling by town choir and church groups is already being lined up on a daily schedule for the two weeks prior to Christmas and the merchants will participate by placing their vote of the best window of their choice in a special container in all local banks.

Christmas in Andover will be for everyone and everyone can join in the festivities. The planning Committee under the leadership of Victoria Rauseo

Commendation

To the Editor of the Townsman:

Shawsheen school parents enjoyed an open house with a difference last Thursday evening. This innovation which was enjoyed by everybody I spoke to, took the form of a mini-night school.

Parents actually sat in on classes with their children, followed the instructions, asked questions and most importantly observed our children in a learning situation, not from the side lines, but from center field.

For the enthusiastic spirit and obvious sincerity in which this program was conducted, my commendation goes to Miss Debbie and her staff at the Shawsheen school.

On Equalization

To the Editor of the TOWNSMAN:

I believe the town of Andover is the best town around.

I believe it was in 1779, is now in 1977, and will be in 2077 — so pay our fair share and vote for Article 11, Equalization of the Tax at Special Town Meeting on October 24.

I believe we have to update our 1966 excellent town records of property assessments, so as to stay in line with the Massachusetts 100% valuation.

I believe to pay for professionals to do the work will insure fairer standards. A good base today makes it possible to adjust tomorrow's changes, both inexpensively and safely.

I believe this system will reflect on the resale of your house in a most favorable way.

Your property is as good as your town, and you are the town.

Come to town meeting.

Beverly M. Darling
(Mrs. David L. Darling)
136 Elm St.

To the Editor Of The Townsman

Next Monday night at Town Meeting the Town of Andover has the opportunity to maintain its reputation as a well-run, progressive and responsible community that faces up to issues, not run away from them. Fair share equalization deserves the support of all townspeople. While the subject of property taxes is never pleasant. If Andover approves Article 11, All property owners can be sure that they are paying only their fair share of property taxes and not assuming someone else's share of the burden.

Andover has conducted a complete reassessment every ten or eleven years since 1955. It is time to do it again. With the rapid growth of the town and the escalation of property values in the past few years, the assessed values of many properties need to be updated to reflect today's market conditions and replacement costs. This program will not raise taxes, since the total amount of money to be raised by the town is essentially determined by town meeting itself. Andover's cherry sheet receipts (state aid) should not be affected by this program, since the state already has assigned us an assessed valuation almost twice what the Assessor's office reports.

If we delay action this year, the present discrepancies will escalate each year, thus generating far worse trauma when reassessment ultimately occurs. Defeating the equalization article now is only postponing the inevitable. Isn't it far better for Andover to do it, on its own terms, under its own control, than have the state come in and conduct its bureaucratic, inefficient program and send us the bill?

Mrs. Frank W. Reynolds II, 24 Sheridan Road, Andover, is among the first American Contract Bridge League organization officers to receive recognition for outstanding membership work, reports Richard L. Goldberg, Memphis, executive secretary of the ACBL.

Goldberg said certificates marking exceptional work in the introduction of new players to bridge, go to fewer than half of the ACBL membership groups throughout the United States, Canada, Mexico and Bermuda. Awards go to organizations having more than ten per cent new members for 1977.

Mrs. Reynolds was honored as the 1977 membership chairman of the Eastern Mass. Unit, a membership chapter of the ACBL.

A Bit Of Explanation

Dainia Gammon, explains to 18-month-old Erin Gammon some of the benefits of the annual ski and skate sale to be conducted Oct. 27-29 at the Brook Street YMCA building. The sale is being sponsored by the Andover A.B.C. and Christ Church Professional Nursery for the Handicapped.

Ski, Skate Sale At New Location

The annual Ski and Skate Sale, sponsored next week by the Andover-North Andover Parents Association, the Andover A.B.C. and Christ Church Professional Nursery for the Handicapped, will be held at a new location this year: the Brook Street "Y" building in Andover.

Families interested in selling outgrown but usable ski and skate equipment and outdoor clothing may bring those items along with a stamped, self-addressed envelope for proceeds to the Brook St. Y next Wednesday from 3 to 6 p.m. and next Thursday, from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. Items should be tagged by masking tape with size, name and address.

Sellers are asked to set their own prices in even dollars, though there will be people on hand at the Y to help. Sellers will receive 75 percent of the sale price, with the remainder going to the above-named, non-profit groups.

'City Lights' At Library

City Lights (1931) will be shown Friday October 21 at 7:30 p.m. as part of the Friday Feature Film Series. This is a melancholy and beautiful film which revolves around the lonely little tramp's love for a lovely blind girl. Although produced during the early sound period, Chaplin rejected dialogue preferring to continue silent screen pantomime. This film was written, produced, directed and scored by Chaplin.

The Morning Series

The Morning Series is a group of discussions relating to topics of interest to parents and will be presented twice each week on Tuesdays and Wednesdays from October 25 (repeated on Oct. 26) through December 6 (repeated December 7). There will be no program Thanksgiving week. The series is open to the public, but the programs are set up to appeal to the parents of our Littlest Listeners. It will be held from 9:45 — 10:45 a.m. in the Print Room. Parents of Littlest Listeners may sign up in the Children's Room. Others may telephone the Library (475-6960) or sign up in person. There is no fee.

The topic for next week is "What Makes a Good Book for My Child"; the discussion leader will be Barbara Bro, Children's Literature teacher. Future topics include: "So Your Daughter Wants a Horse"; "The Heimlich Method" (choke clinic); "What Can the Women's Movement Do For Me?" and a Christmas Pinecone Wreath Workshop.

Foreign Student Reception This Wednesday

The annual United Nations Reception for foreign students will be held on Wednesday October 26 from 7 - 9 p.m. at the Library. Sponsored by the Andover and North Andover chapters of the American Field Service and A Better Chance, the reception will give residents of Andover and North Andover an opportunity to meet the foreign students attending Brooks School, Phillips Academy, North Andover and Andover high schools.

This year in addition to the panel of students representing A Better Chance and American Field Service, entertainment will be provided by hypnotist, Jerry Valley. Refreshments will be served. Everyone is invited to attend.

New Business Periodical

Memorial Hall Library is now subscribing to the "Merrill Lynch Market Letter", which is issued bi-weekly. This new report on stock issues by the United States' largest brokerage firm will be available in a notebook located in the business alcove of the library and will not be circulated.

Great Books Discussion Group

The Great Books Group will hold its next meeting on Tuesday October 25 at 7:30 p.m. in the Print Room. The book for discussion is The Castle by Franz Kafka.

Children's Room News by Ruth Hooten

To get in the mood for Halloween, the Children's Room will be presenting the original King Kong on Sat. Oct. 29 at 2 p.m. As usual, tickets will be given out to children over 7 years old at 1:30; be sure to come on time since a large turnout is expected. Due to the subject matter of the film, parental discretion is advised.

For the preschool set, we have Films on Fridays. On October 21, we will be showing "Hansel and Gretel", "Hailstones and Halibut Bones", and "The Happy Owls". The films for October 28 will be "The Three Robbers", "Mole and the Lollipop", and "In the Forest". The films will be shown at 10:30 a.m. and 2 p.m. All children accompanied by an adult are welcome.

Don't forget our evening storyhour "Pajama Party", Thursday at 7 p.m. This is a 45 minute program of stories, songs, and sometimes a movie. There is no registration required, but we ask that only children 3½ to 5 years attend.

VIBOR needs new members! If you like books (reading, reviewing, and talking about them) drop by the Children's Room any Thursday afternoon at 3:45 p.m. and see what goes on at a VIBOR meeting.

Substitutes In Training Program

Elementary schools substitutes seeking "preferred" status are presently undergoing a special, 12-week training program that, followed by six hours of on-the-job training, will gain them an extra $5 a day pay.

Supt. Kenneth R. Seifert Tuesday night presented to the school committee what he called "one of the most forward-looking programs for substitutes" he has seen, and added that first year teachers are required to attend as well.

The sessions are for two hours after school on Wednesday and so far have included one on "The Child and the Substitute Teacher" with Psychologist Larry Larsen; two on AIRS (Andover Individualized Reading System) and two on SCIS (the science program). Coming up are sessions on the Holt Databank Social Studies program, elementary labs, the specialist areas of music, art, media and physical education, a media workshop, and instructional alternatives.

Seifert said he feels strongly about the way people are trained, and thinks this "extra mile" is necessary for people who want to work here.

"We do not," he said, "consider substitute teaching as babysitting."

Committeeman Casimir Kolaski said that considering the complexity of Andover's educational program, "this is the only way to know what's going on when you get to school."

Business Manager Edward Maguire said he felt the extra pay will be covered in the salary budget for substitutes, as long as absenteeism among teachers isn't abnormally high.

Chairman David Ahouse added that this course gives them a very good education, and that the $25 stipend shouldn't be considered out of line since it's about average for substitutes in this area.

Once the elementary substitutes complete the course, they will be the ones called first when teachers are absent. Should all be busy, other substitutes will then be given an opportunity to work.

Seifert also said he is asking the various program advisors to establish training programs to ensure that there will be qualified substitutes for their particular areas.

Non-Residents Allowed In Schools

Despite Committeeman Joseph Finn's warnings that they could be opening a "Pandora's box," the majority of the school committee last week voted to allow non-residents to attend Andover Schools at the school committee's "discretion."

Non-residents are already allowed in some cases to stay through the end of the year if their family moves out of Andover, or to enter early if their family expects to move into town within a couple month. Usually, tuition is charged if the non-resident time period exceeds 60 days.

Students who plan to graduate from Andover High School at the end of a current school year are also allowed to continue after their family moves out of town.

Finn objected to adding the "discretionary clause" because it might encourage too many people to come forward, and force the school committee to set precedents.

It would have to be an unusual circumstance to admit a non-resident, he said, adding that the committee already has the inherent right to admit students without any such clause.

Chairman David Ahouse joined Finn in a

"no" vote, saying he preferred to have the administration spend its time and energies on improving "what we've got for our own children without opening up to other students."

Supt. Kenneth R. Seifert said he has often thought about tuition as an answer to declining enrollments, and Committeeman Alan Doerr spoke favorably of that possibility.

Policy Imposed On Y Request

The Andover School Committee last week denied permission for the Andover-North Andover YMCA to send leaflets promoting its Youth Basketball League home through the schools, then later in the evening updated a policy governing future such cases.

Committeeman Joseph Finn was the first to object to Bevolyn Oliver's request on behalf of the "Y" that leaflets about the league be sent home with school children. He said it might be viewed as trying to "trump up" membership for the "Y" since membership is a pre-requisite for the League.

"We try," he said, "not to get in a position of promoting businesses," and added that he felt it might put "undue pressures" on some children who are not members.

Full privilege member only are eligible for leagues at the main "Y" building on Haverhill Street, while affiliate members can only play at the Brook Street facility and non-members can't play at all.

Supt. Kenneth R. Seifert also sided against passing out individual leaflets since, he said, it would seem like the schools were endorsing the program. However, he struck a middle ground by suggesting that posters be put up in each building, with leaflets available to those who specifically asked for them.

He was charged with the responsibility of working out poster arrangements and the committee went along 5-0 with his suggestion.

The policy provides that posting of any announcements by non-school groups requires the permission of each principal. While materials to be posted in more than one school must be approved by the superintendent.

Distribution of materials about events sponsored by non-school groups requires approval of the school committee.

Andona's Anniversary Ball Is Saturday

A champagne toast to 25 years of charitable achievement will be the highlight of the 25th Anniversary Ball of the Andona Society to be held Saturday at the Andover Country Club.

In addition, a light buffet will be served at midnight.

Art Auction Planned By Woman's Club

The Shawsheen Village Woman's Club will hold an art auction next Friday, Oct. 28, at the Sheraton Rolling Green, Andover, featuring works of world-known artists.

The evening will begin with complimentary champagne punch and a preview of the art works at 7:30, with auctioning to begin at 8:30. There will also be a cash bar.

The auction is open to the public and tickets will be sold at the door. Each couple attending will receive a free lithograph and an opportunity to win other prizes.

The National Art Auction Gallery, Inc., of New York is providing the works of such artists as Chagal, Dali, Picasso, Calder, Sarah Churchill, Miro, Matisse, and many others. In addition to original oil paintings there will be graphics, watercolors, sculpture, enamels, engravings, tapestries, mixed medium and Persian oils. All pictures are framed.

In charge of the evening are Mrs. Arthur Ahern and Mrs. Hugh Maginnis of the ways and means committee and Mrs. Joseph Cancila and Mrs. Joseph Rigazio of the scholarship committee.

Series For Women At Turningpoint

Turningpoint Christian Service Center will sponsor an eight week lecture-discussion series on Stability for Women in Today's World. The course will include personal identity, marriage fulfillment and parental objectives.

The teacher of this series will be Ginger O'Shea of Andover, a well-known Bible Instructor in this area. Women committed to a higher way of living, who are seeking to know and apply God's divine mental, emotional and spiritual principles are invited to attend this course.

Registration with course explanation will be held today at 10 a.m. The first lecture will begin at 10 a.m. next Thursday.

A pre-kindergarten Bible Class will be held at the same time for children of mothers attending the classes. There will also be babysitting for the infants.

Turningpoint is located at 13 Essex St., Andover.

In 1929 the haddock catch was 294 million pounds; in 1972 the catch was 12 million pounds, Massachusetts Audubon notes.

All members of the organization will be contributing homemade cocktail sandwiches and finger pastries.

Coordinating the event are Mrs. John Leahey and Mrs. James Kelley. They are assisted by Mrs. Vaughan Sanborn and Mrs. Paul Durant, refreshments; Mrs. Glenn Rogers and Mrs. Richard Scarborough, invitations; Mrs. Evan Brodie and Mrs. Albert Abrahamson, decorations; Mrs. Frederic Hildebrandt, finance; and Mrs. Robert Jurgen, publicity.

Dancing will be from 9 p.m. to 1 a.m. to the music of Al Minkinnen's Versatones. Reservations may still be made by contacting Mrs. Glenn Rogers, 2 Cameron Circle, Andover.

Proceeds of the dance will be used to further the club's social, educational, recreational and civic endeavors for the youngsters of Andover.

Rummage Sale Set

The Family Cooperative Preschool will hold a rummage sale on Saturday, Oct. 22 from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m. The sale will be held on the school grounds at 33 Johnson Street, North Andover. Proceeds from the sale will benefit the school.

Mrs. Frederick R. Ford

Ford - Tassinari

Ellen Marie Tassinari, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert P. Tassinari of 8 Ivy Lane, Andover, was married Oct. 1 to Frederick Robert Ford, son of Mrs. Daniel G. Ford of Roslindale and the late Mr. Ford.

The wedding was celebrated at a nuptial Mass at Saint Augustine's Church, Andover, by the Rev. John Daly, cousin of the groom. A reception followed at the Lanam Club.

The bride wore a Priscilla gown of white silk organza and Venice lace, fashioned with a natural waistline, high neck and long tapered sleeves that flounce at the wrist. The skirt was full with scattered venice appliques and venice lace bordering the skirt and train. She wore a cathedral-length mantilla scattered with Venice lace, which fell from a small lace headpiece, and carried a bouquet of white sweetheart roses, baby's breath and stephanotis.

Candee Thomas of Andover was the maid of honor and wore a mint julep jersey gown with a high neckline, cap sleeves and empire waist. She carried a bouquet of yellow poms, yellow daisies and baby's breath.

Bridesmaids were Maura Curran of Bridgeport, Conn., cousin of the bride, Elizabeth Davis of New York City and

Author Lectures At Merrimack

The first lecture in a series on Religious Studies will be presented on Sunday, Oct 23 at 7 p.m. at Merrimack College when Rosemary Haughton speaks on "Community Models for Social Justice." The address will be given at McQuade library on the North Andover campus and is open to everyone free of charge.

"One of the most fruitful theological writers of our time..." reads the University of Notre Dame citation in awarding Rosemary Haughton an honorary Doctor of Divinity degree this year. Author of over 30 books, she responds to the need of many people to recognize the experience of God as something they already know, the meaning of life. She is best known for her Transformation of Man, Act of Love, Tales from Eternity, and The World of Fairytales and the Spiritual Search.

She is half American and half English. Presently she and her husband and a small group of others are living and working in Scotland on a small community venture on the land. Their twin purpose is to work out a practical, decent but simple life that makes sense in a world of increasing shortages, and so to create a center for informal education for young people, especially those from urban areas, who come for a few weeks to work and study and discover.

Mrs. John J. Genova

Genova - Driscoll

Katherine Ann Driscoll, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas B. Driscoll, 39 Morton St., Andover, became the bride Saturday of John Joseph Genova. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John H. Martin of Nashua, N. H.

The Rev. Richard T. O'Leary, O.S.A., officiated at the 12 o'clock noon ceremony at St. Augustine's Church, Andover, which was decorated with two green palms and white floral arrangements. A reception followed at the Lanam Club.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a Priscilla gown of ivory silk-finished satin fashioned with long, tapered sleeves and wedding band neckline. The A-line skirt fell from an Empire waistline into a circular billowing train accented with satin Venise and Alencon appliques. The bodice was of Alencon lace and satin Venise with English net.

Her chapel-length veil of illusion with snowflake appliques of Alencon and satin Venice lace fell from a matching Juliet cap. She carried a cascade bouquet of one white orchid with stephanotis and needlepoint ivy.

Cyd Elizabeth Driscoll of Andover attended her sister as maid of honor, wearing a gown of rust jersey fashioned with a criss-cross halter neckline and a chiffon cape of brown, rust and off-white floral design. She carried a bouquet of brown and beige orchids with stephanotis and needlepoint ivy.

Wearing matching gowns were the bridesmaids, the bride's sisters Mary Coleen Driscoll and Sara Jane Driscoll of Andover, and Kathleen DiGeronimo of Leominster and Lorilee Alteri of Clinton, N. Y.

Mrs. Driscoll chose a full-length gown of Nile green Qiana, and a matching jacket featuring long, bishop sleeves and notched collar, for her daughter's wedding. The groom's mother chose a full-length gown in toast-colored Qiana, with a cowl neckline and cuffs accented with cinnamon sequins. It was topped with a full-length sleeveless jacket.

David Carlson of Nashua, N. H., served as best man, and ushers included the bride's brothers Timothy D. Driscoll and Richard A. Driscoll of Andover, David Puopolo of North Andover and Douglas Burke of Milford, N. H.

The new Mrs. Genova graduated from Andover High School and Plymouth State College, and is a former substitute teacher in the Andover School System. Her husband, a graduate of Andover High School and Plymouth State College, is a lieutenant in the U. S. Marine Corps.

Following a wedding trip to Bermuda, the couple will be at home in Quantico, Va.

Mrs. Mark Abbott Patterson

Patterson - Crossley

At home in Pittsfield, N. H., are Mr. and Mrs. Mark Abbott Patterson, who were married in South Congregational Church here Sept. 3.

The bride is the former Diane Christine Crossley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John F. Crossley, 35 Rocky Hill Road, Andover. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Willard H. Patterson, 22 Upland Road.

The Rev. Everett Bodge performed the 1 o'clock ceremony before an altar decorated with two bouquets of late summer asters, mums, and gladioli. Eighteenth century music was played on a harpsichord by Jan Dorset-Wauschman, with Michael C. Maryanski on the oboe.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of white organza re-embroidered silk Venice flower motif trimmed the Queen Anne neckline, fitted bodice, and cap sleeves and edged the hem of the flounce of the skirt.

The same flower motif trimmed her organza cap, from which fell her elbow length veil of illusion. She carried a bouquet of a white orchid, stephanotis, baby's breath and magnolia leaves.

The bride was attended by her sisters, Mrs. Dorothy Arcand of Lawrence as matron of honor, Gigi Crossley of Andover as maid of honor and Elaine and Amy Crossley, also of Andover, bridesmaids.

Each attendant's gown was of a different color. Laura Ashley print, white flowers on pink, Kelley green, yellow and royal blue, and featured Empire bodices and floor-length skirts, with white eyelet embroidery ruffles at the neckline.

The girls also wore white gloves and carried bouquets of white roses and colored carnations to match their dresses.

The bride's niece, Tara Gile Arcand of Lawrence was flower girl, wearing an 18th century aqua dress in the same print, with puff sleeves, Empire bodice, full skirt and a bow at the neckline. She carried a basket of white mums and rose petals.

Mrs. Crossley chose a sleeveless coral gown of polyester with matching overlay for her daughter's wedding. It featured a fitted skirt and Empire bodice with mandarin collar, and a chiffon, elbow-length cape trimmed with self ruffle. She wore a corsage of coral cymbidium orchids.

The groom's mother wore a long-sleeved Empire gown of mint green polyester with a full skirt and overlay of ecru cotton lace. She wore a yellow rose corsage.

Lee Patterson of Lawrence served as his brother's best man, and ushers included the bride's brother, John W. Crossley of Andover, Michael Hinds of Derry, N. H., and Wesley Shattuck of Andover.

A reception followed the wedding at the Andover Country Club and the couple honeymooned in Bethany Beach, Del.

The new Mrs. Patterson, a graduate of Andover High, attended Castle Secretarial School and is a customer service representative at the Hampshire Savings Bank. She was formerly employed by the Andover Bank.

Her husband, a graduate of the Greater Lawrence Vocational Technical High School and Concord College, Nashua, N. H., is a project engineer with the Cambridge Thermonics Corp. in Pittsfield, N. H. He is also a four-year veteran of the U. S. Navy.

Dinner Dance To Observe Jubilee

A dinner dance is being planned to celebrate the 125th anniversary of St. Augustine's Church, Andover.

Unique floral arrangements and a blue and gold theme will decorate the Christian Formation Center, West Andover, on the evening of Nov. 19, as parishioners and community leaders gather in honor of the 125th anniversary of St. Augustine's Church in Andover.

A prime rib of beef dinner will be served at 6:30 p.m. and guests will have an evening of dancing to the music of the Versatones until 1 a.m.

General chairman of the 125th anniversary is Mrs. Joseph W. Lynch, 46 Morton Street, Andover. A committee of ladies headed by Mrs. Richard O'Hara, 10 Bancroft Road, Andover, is in charge of dinner dance decorations.

Reservations may be made for tables of six or eight by contacting Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Ponti, 120 Chestnut Street, Andover.

Confirmation Program Has 227 Enrolled

At a recent Investiture Service, 227 ninth and tenth graders were enrolled in St. Augustine's Confirmation program. During this year these candidates will have an opportunity to reflect on their roles as young adults in the Christian community as they attend weekly meetings in small groups. In December they will attend a day of spiritual renewal at the Espousal Center in Waltham.

On Oct. 17 the group was addressed by Dr. Kenneth Seifert, Supt. of Schools who spoke of the importance of service to others in the community and of service as an integral part of the life of a member of the Christian Community.

The candidates then visited classrooms where people from the Community spoke about specific areas of need. Mary Hamilton, R.N., of the health department talked of programs which serve the elderly and ways in which teenagers can become involved. Cheryl Garvey of the Academy Nursing Home described the activities she runs there, and Kathy Mohan talked about the Friendly Visitor Program.

The candidates learned from Gail Taylor from Christ Church Professional Nursery for Handicapped Children of needs that can be served there, while Kathy O'Brien and Charlotte Flynn described possibilities for service in the parish educational program. Mary Bolduc and Pat Recesso talked of the many needs to be considered both within the parish and in the community.

Church, as communications chairperson, and the Rev. David Duncan, of West Parish Church, as program chairperson.

Plans were formulated for a Thanksgiving Eve community service to be held at West Parish Church. Details of the service will be announced closer to the date of the service.

The Clergy Association will hold its next meeting on Wednesday, Nov. 2 at noon at West Parish Church, and welcomes all religious leadership who serve the people of Andover. Future agenda calls for not only further planning on the service material, but also informational sessions on planning projections for Andover, issues of drug abuse in town, and other socially relevant topics.

We have begun to understand that the connection between our health and that of the natural world may be far closer than we thought. We are part of the natural world and it is a part of us, Massachusetts Audubon points out.

Clergy Plan Thanksgiving Service

The Andover Clergy Association, an interfaith informal meeting of the religious leadership serving Andover, met on Oct. 17th at the Unitarian Universalist Church.

Elected at that meeting were the Rev. David Hollenbeck, of Ballardvale United

Jubilee Year England

Northumbria

By Raymond B. DeRuisseau

A697, a combination motorway and carriage road took us speedily on the long ride from Edinburgh into Northumbria, which is a beehive of activity.

Confusion existed in our collective minds as we were told all that was to be seen in the area new to us. Northumbria is comprised of the counties of Northumberland, Durham, Tyne and Wear and Cleveland. We were to bed down in Newcastle, the noted "coals to ..." industrial city, and found that the noted city is in Tyne and Wear county. Tyne and Wear is a spanking new county created in 1974. The British though steeped in tradition and very conscious of the antiquity of locales are not hesitant about acting boldly in reassigning areas as new counties to serve today's needs. We were to see another example of this in Cleveland which is also a relatively new county, a dynamic industrial complex and one of the nation's fastest growing ports.

As our motorcoach crossed into England over the hillsides covered with yellow gorse, we could see the Cheviot Hills in Northumbria National Park to our right and occasionally caught a glimpse of the North Sea, Blue under a clear sky.

Finally we were within the city limits of Newcastle and it became evident, once more, that reconstruction plans and activity are grandiose. We pulled up to the Royal Turks Head Hotel in Grey street, got settled and made ready to continue an already busy day. Here we met Mrs. Monica Tuke, of the Central Information Office, who was to be our helpmeet in Northumbria and she was great.

IPSM members were guests of Mr. J. P. McClure, chairman of the Tyne and Wear County Council at the Guildhall in Newcastle. At this very pleasant luncheon the TOWNSMAN picked up a scoop in casual conversation. We report it forthwith.

Our President Jimmy Carter along with British Prime Minister Mr. James Callaghan visited Newcastle a little over a month before our arrival and Carter was still a prime subject of discussion. The President made a big hit and is very, very popular there.

Talking with our informant, he pointed out that it all began well. President Carter didn't dally in London. He had come to visit Newcastle and after stopping overnight in the capital, he came directly to Northumbria. The people liked that. In his customary outgoing way, the President, with his big grin ever in evidence, mingled with the people, shaking hands and getting lost in the crowd much to the dismay of the attendant security cordon assigned to preclude this very thing.

The President had been very well briefed on how things are in Newcastle. As he stood to address the assembled throng which was waving a mixture of British and American flags, he paused and a hush of anticipation fell over the crowd Jimmy waited and then spoke his first words: "Hie, Away The Lads!" The phrase is a standard over there and is likened to one of our football fight cheers, it is indeed a prod for their own football teams, a very serious business in Britain. The President let it sink in and then the crowd exploded, we were told. Our news source said that our President might well have been elected to most any office he chose that day, if it had been left to the discretion of those in attendance.

It was a great beginning to a very successful visit. So successful in fact that he even topped the Queen in her Jubilee Year.

The latter came about in this wise. A new shopping complex at Doxford Park in Sunderland, south Northumbria, was in need of a name and two suggestions were to be acted upon. The "Queen Elizabeth Center" and the "President Carter Center." The North Council, in a split decision, opted for the President Carter Center!

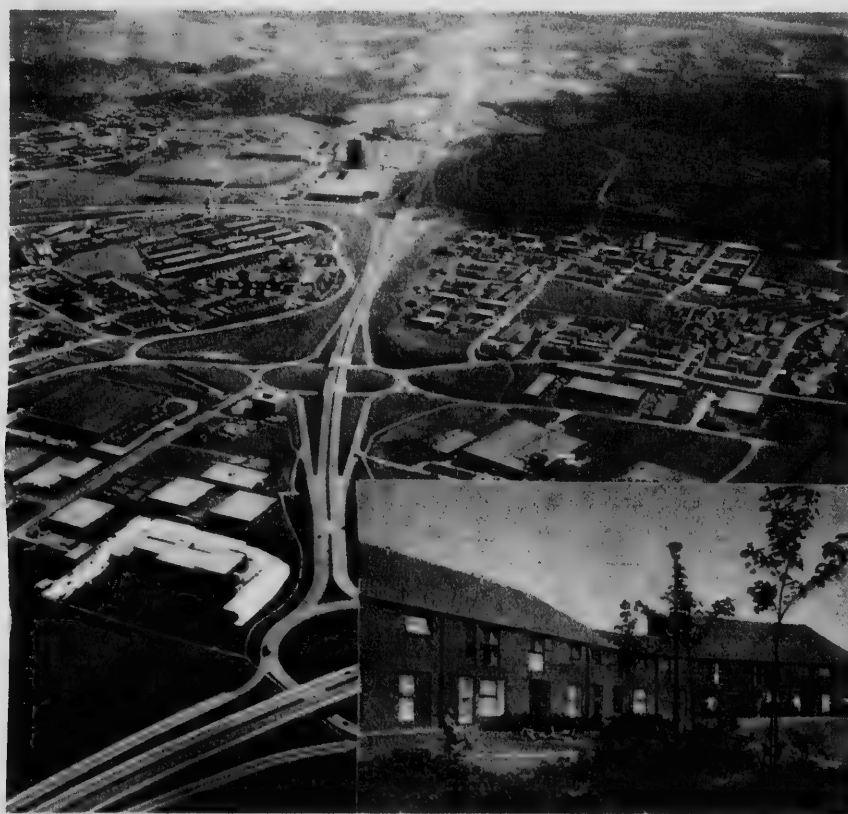

"Shame," said the Conservatives on the Sunderland Council but the controlling Labour group voted to assure a handsome victory for the "world's best-known peanut farmer," said the local press. The story was told to us by an English newspaperman who seemed to relish telling it. We were the only one in our group to have it and that constitutes a scoop but in the IPSM tradition we passed on the information to our other papers. Wanting verification, since we were not going to Sunderland, we called upon Mrs. Tuke and she took the trouble to mail us a newspaper clipping supporting the story. So,

Carter In Newcastle

The President in Newcastle. Typically Jimmy Carter took off among the crowds, shook hands and chatted with the assembled multitude much to the concern of our Secret Service people. There were no untoward incidents. The Stars and Stripes waved among Union Jacks underlining the bond which exists between our two nations.

one may now shop in the President Carter Complex in Sunderland.

Many of Britain endeavors in this great rebuilding age are Utopian. A prime example is Washington New Town, which we were wisked off to visit in the afternoon. It is on the outskirts (6 miles) of Newcastle and the vast area, 5,300 acres, was designated in 1964 as part of the National Plan for revitalization of the region. It is eventually to house a population of 80,000, provide good industrial sites and thereby broaden the regional economy and by example raise the quality of the regional economy.

Again planning has carefully sought to consider all aspects to create an ideal community. Industry is carefully interwoven with housing, recreational facilities and retail establishments to care for all needs. Presently this new town is at the half way state. More than 8,000 new homes have been built in a variety of styles for both rent and for sale. About 3,000 more are under construction. More than 190 new factories have been built and occupied providing over 8,000 jobs, we were told, and another 7,000 are in prospect when companies reach their planned production targets.

Washington New Town was designed as a series of 16 villages, each with its own name: Donwell, Usworth, Concord, Sulgrave, Mount Pleasant, etc. Each village to have a population of about 4,000 its own shopping center, primary school, village hall, pub or club and village green.

The Washington Center is the hub of the entire enclave. Situated in the heart of the entire complex at the junction of two motorways, it contains a large 2-story shopping area of high quality and character with free parking space for 3,000 cars, a bus station, and professional offices in attractive new buildings.

All this we found very interesting and educational, especially so since all of this rises out of much dereliction which has been eradicated, as we reported from Wales. Great collieries in and around Newcastle at one time employed 20,000 miners but the 20th century saw a major decline in the demand for coal. Relatively few pits remain open though those that do remain are working rich seams, we are told. Ship building in the Tynemouth area and ship repair remain the largest construction and repair complex in the UK.

Our trip through Washington NEW Town was conducted by Mr. W. S. Holley, the general manager and Mr. Holley saw to it that we were shown all that would support the concept and undertaking.

Approximately at the midpoint of this entire dream in being is located Washington Old Hall which is the ancestral home of George Washington, our first president. The building has been restored and is carefully preserved as a historical site and is open to visitors. President Carter went there during his May visit.

A charming English woman greeted us and showed us about. She delighted in telling us how the name of our nation's capital might have turned out to be "Heartburn" instead of Washington. Back in 1183, the Old Hall was called the Manor of Wessyngton and was acquired by one William de Hertburn. Hertburn eventually assumed the name of the manor as was the custom, he thus became the first "Washington." In 1656 two of his descendants, John and Lawrence Washington emigrated to America and settled in Virginia. In the following course of events, George was born in Fredericksburg in 1732. The rest belongs to history.

The tour moved on apace and our motorcoach headed south to Durham where we were shown the famed Norman Durham Cathedral and adjoining castle. We were greeted by Dean Very Reverend Eric Heaton, attired in the traditional cap and gown. History, hoary with age, seemed to leap out at us from every nave and corner as Dr. Gibby, our guide and a walking encyclopedia, recited dates and events which have marked this great edifice through the centuries. Dr. Gibby engendered smiles when he stood with his back to a modernistic Christ carved from wood and towering in one of the naves of the Cathedral. he explained that he kept his back to the art form on purpose; his tactful disapproval of the work drew a knowing smile from Dean Heaton and from his audience.

Following our visit to Durham Cathedral, Lord Mayor and Lady Mayoress Allan Thompson hosted a reception in our honor at Guild Hall where we met Col. K. G. Miller, MCTD, Chief Executive at Town Hall and other dignitaries.

It had been a long day and we all retired to the Royal Turks Head Hotel a bit the worse for wear (no pun intended). Our copious notes were a shambles by now and more was in store for the next day when we were to head for Cleveland.

Bresnahan In Navy Exercise

Navy Machinist's Mate Third Class William F. Bresnahan, son of Mr. and Mrs. Brendan C. Bresnahan of 64 Sylvan Ter., North Andover, is participating in Exercise "Varsity Sprint" off the Southern California coast.

He is serving as a crewmember aboard the ammunition ship USS Kilauea, homeported in Concord, Calif.

He is one of more than 13,000 men taking part in the 13-day exercise, which includes 25 ships and 200 aircraft. "Varsity Sprint" is designed to test and evaluate all phases of naval operations, including air, antisubmarine and surface warfare; replenishment at sea and weapons firing. The exercise is one of a series of Third Fleet exercises conducted to refine fleet tactics and provide continuous training of combat ready naval forces.

"Varsity Sprint" is under the overall command of Vice Admiral Samuel L. Gravelly, Jr., USN, the commander of the U.S. Third Fleet.

A 1975 graduate of Greater Lawrence High School, Bresnahan joined the Navy in July, 1975.

Seek Funds For Revalue Program

Fair Share/Equalization, a program that would have each Andover taxpayer pay taxes on the market value of his own property, appears as Article 11 on Monday's Town Warrant.

The article asks $150,000 to hire an outside firm to do the program right — that is, establish a full cash value, or 100 percent assessment, of each property in town. Assessors claim that property values have risen and decreased in so many cases in the 11 years since the last valuation, that many taxpayers are carrying the tax load for other residents who aren't paying their "fair share."

Town officials have intended to do an assessment every 10 years and — Selectmen have gone along with the article as far as a $140,000 price tag. Voters turned down a similar request last year.

As in the past, data collected would include building costs, amount of "custom" type work, type of structure and the like. In addition, "considerably more relevant" information such as number of bedrooms, neighborhood characteristics, and proximity to open space areas — any type of information that would have a bearing on the fair market value of a property — would be added.

The tax rate could be altered, but not the total amount of money to be collected by the town.

Cherry Sheet income from the state would not be affected one way or another by the reassessment.

Because of computer programs not available 10 years ago, the assessors feel they'd be able to keep a better handle on assessments by adding new information each year and updating values for the entire town by merely changing a formula.

A complete explanation of FS/E by the board of assessors, appears as a bright yellow center-fold in the center of the Finance Committee report, mailed last week to Andover voters.

Austin

Austin and due him for retirement or sick leave benefits.

One of the options open to Austin was retirement, through which he would receive approximately four months salary. The manager rejected this option stating in his opinion it would appear to the town that he was playing games. He actually has no intention of retiring, he told the board Monday night.

Tuesday night, Mrs. Poore said that Town Counsel Daniels had indicated that based on his announced intent not to retire, the board could not, in effect accept such a proposal.

Joining in the proposition to provide Austin with six months salary through an administrative assistant or some other title, on Tuesday, was Selectman Philip Salamone, appointed to the board in May to take the place of Alan F. French who resigned.

Salamone said he had no problem utilizing Austin's talents for that period which would provide him with the necessary six months of compensation. He suggested that Austin could be employed in a study capacity, utilizing his knowledge and work with town boards and agencies over the past eight years.

He said he would not suggest what they should be, leaving such a matter up to the acting town manager when appointed.

Mrs. Poore was opposed, stating she was being consistent — "I don't support Mr. Austin's administration and I have no reason to change now." When she said she could not agree to the proposal, Selectman Albert Cole told her she didn't have to.

Mrs. Poore had also commented on the fact that there was a problem that initially when the matter was discussed it represented the possibility of a "no show" job. This was altered by the fact that the job descriptions and assignments would be specific to make it a show job.

Selectman Richard J. Bowen noted that basically the board was back to the proposal discussed a week ago.

Austin had agreed, noting that there was agreement that there must be a change and that it be done as soon as possible, which brings the matter back to where it was a week ago Tuesday.

He noted the danger in requiring the six month assurance having to be carried out by an as yet unknown third party (acting manager) the only appointing authority.

It was stressed that the selectmen could not make a commitment due to charter provisions of the manager being the appointing authority.

Austin had put together a list of suggested tasks to which he could be assigned.

As the various points were discussed further and repeated, Selectman Bowen moved for a 15 minute recess to permit the manager to think over alternatives.

Before the recess was up, Austin reappeared in the meeting room at the water treatment plant and placed his written resignation on the table effective immediately.

Selectman Edward M. Harris then moved for the acceptance, and then followed considerable discussion as to who the acting manager would be and how his duties were to be carried out.

Harris, Cole and Salamone opted for an active role.

Salamone then called Cohen at home and asked him to come to the meeting.

Advised of the Austin's decision and the feelings of the board, Cohen told selectmen that he felt their definition of the acting manager role was reasonable and proper, that he was familiar with most major items facing the town at this time.

He also said he was prepared to apply himself to whatever effort the board desired, adding that there should be some limit on expectations under the circumstances.

Bowen said the office must be full-functioning and without crutches or canes, Cohen concurred.

Cohen was asked about the proposal given Austin relative to continued employment, a matter which would be left to the acting manager to carry out. He said he would need some clear direction regarding the board's posture regarding Mr. Austin's continuing employment.

Later, Cohen told the TOWNSMAN, that he could not make an immediate decision on the matter, but it would be in conformance to the will of the majority of the selectmen.

At the Monday session, after the legal problems were discussed with Town Counsel Daniels and there was additional discussion on assurance of a six-month compensation plan. Selectman Richard J. Bowen said he felt the problem must be resolved by Tuesday. He said the board had already spent sufficient time on the matter, and without a satisfactory settling of the issue on Tuesday he was prepared to move for dismissal of the manager at the next regular meeting of the board.

School

ment will drop about 100 students a year for the next several years.

Shifting Students

The committee presented the four alternatives they feel are "most practical and easiest to carry out," beginning one which they say overcomes all the shortcomings they found in the school system at essentially no additional cost to the taxpayer and with minimum disruption.

Essentially, 7th graders from overcrowded East Jr. High would be moved to six rooms in Doherty's second floor, while continuing to use core facilities at East. About 150 pupils would then be transferred via redistricting from West Jr. High to East. That in turn would make room for some pupils from overcrowded Andover High, who could walk 125 yards across the field to West Junior.

These steps could be taken next fall, with a cost of less than $5,000 for installation of some walls in Doherty for self-contained 7th grade classrooms.

Alternative One also calls, in September of 1980, for some of Jackson School's functions (Chapter 766 and Reading Department) to be moved to Sanborn School, with a possible redistricting of Sanborn-South lines.

The biggest disadvantage to this plan, the committee said, is that East Jr. High couldn't be shut down for needed renovations (they'd take an estimated 18 months) because it actually overuses "the worst facility in the secondary system."

In his secondary school report, DEC Member Fred Wallace noted that East Jr. High was designed for about 775 pupils, but now has 810. He also called the building "inadequate by most contemporary standards."

At the same time, Wallace said West Jr. High, designed for 815 pupils, has about 880, and the high school, which can handle 1365, presently has 1480. It should peak out at about 1665 in 1980, he said.

Consolidation

Alternative II, would equalize facilities the soonest — in 1979 — and disrupt the fewest students, but it doesn't address secondary problems.

The "Equalization and Consolidation" alternative, it calls for redistricting 140 students from West Elementary to Shawsheen next September, to relieve overcrowding at the former and underutilization of the latter. Possible redistricting of South-Sanborn lines would follow in September, 1979, to allow equalized facilities at those schools. In September, 1981, four rooms would be moved from Jackson to Doherty and the following year, the remainder to Sanborn, for the closing and probable demolition of Jackson School.

School Closing

Alternative III notes that the most obvious consideration in the face of declining enrollment, with an immediate effect on the budget, is to close a school because of its size. Shawsheen could be the first to be closed. However, the committee said renovations aren't paid for and state aid would be lost if it weren't used as a school.

Therefore the alternative leans toward the closing of Sanborn School, which is paid for, in September of 1982. In the meantime, the plan would send 140 students from West to Shawsheen next September to beef up the school's enrollment, and then redistrict 110 from Sanborn to Doherty in 1980, to move four rooms of Jackson School activities to Sanborn.

Then in 1982, Alternative III would redistrict the entire town to permit closing of Sanborn as a school, and the move of the remaining Stowe and Jackson facilities there.

The closing of any school, the committee noted, would save some $30,000 to $35,000 in administrative salaries, plus $15,000 per teacher no longer needed. At the same time, they estimated the savings of closing either Stowe or Jackson would amount to $15,000 to $20,000 each a year.

Temperaries

The fourth possibility calls for the construction of eight temporary classrooms at the high school complex (including West Jr. High) next fall, to handle the overcrowding at the secondary level through the mid 1980's, with the closing of no elementary schools until at least 1981, when space would become available for administrative services. Plan IV also would redistrict elementary schools as in Plan II.

This alternative, the committee said, costs the most in dollars — a possible $400,000 for the eight units.

School Committee Chairman David Ahouse called it a "stiff price tag," but Silverman noted that less than $2 on the tax rate might be more palatable to some parents than redistricting and the like.

Other alternatives considered by Dec. included the closing of South, but the group found that wouldn't do because it would cause more redistricting than if Sanborn were closed. Also South's enrollment is expected to increase.

They also considered creation of one traditional school, but felt complete desegregation wasn't desirable in itself. If it were to come to pass, however, they said South or Sanborn would be ideal.

Among the other findings of the committee:

- Adequate space is not provided at Sanborn, South and West for specialists and learning disabilities.

- West is overcrowded by 120 students while Shawsheen is underutilized by 120 students.

- Enrollment is stable at Bancroft and West, down at Doherty, Shawsheen and Sanborn, and predicted to be up at South.

- Secondary schools will remain overcrowded through 1982-83; the high school, through 1985.

- Class sizes may reach 40 at Andover High if no action is taken.

- No buildings should be removed from operation until equalized capacity has been reached in elementary schools, and predictions are that won't happen until 1980-81.

- All members of a family (except perhaps kindergarten) should attend the same schools. • The largest cost saving would not come from the closing of a school, but reduction of the teaching force.

In his population presentation, Joe Baglio estimated that all elementary schools will continue to drop until 1985, when there will be a slow increase. He predicted a drop of a little less than 100 a year for the next seven years at the elementary level.

He estimated that Bancroft, at 555 enrollment in 1974 will be at 489 in 1983; Doherty, 598 in 1974, 335 in 1983; Sanborn, 494 in 1974, 296 in 1983; Shawsheen, 375 in 1974, 148 in 1983; South, 526 in 1974, 613 in 1983; West, 803 in 1974, 840 in 1983.

New Resident Directors

New resident directors for the Andover A.B.C. program are Kathleen and Tom McGee. They are not newcomers to Andover having lived on Highland Road since 1969 but "being resident directors gives us a different outlook on Andover," said McGee. He added that the many people who support ABC by giving their time and effort is impressive.

Mr. McGee is an accountant with the Borden Chemical Company in North Andover and plays golf as a hobby. Mrs. McGee likes hiking and "they both enjoy all kinds of theater," she said. They have three sons, Rory, ninth grade at East Jr. High, Barry, a junior at American University in Washington, D.C., and Joseph, a graduate student in international economics at Ohio University.

Joseph McGee's work at Ohio with foreign students prompted them to answer the ad for resident directors last spring. Mrs. McGee said they have "always been interested in students," and thinks the Andover ABC program is marvelous.

The Main Street house has been remodeled to accommodate both the girls and the boys program.

Andover Youth Killed In Crash

An Andover young man was killed and another seriously injured in a two car accident early Saturday on Route 125 in North Andover, which also resulted in the death of a 61-year-old Ipswich selectman.

Brian J. O'Hagan, 19, 22 Pleasant St., Andover, died an hour after being admitted to Lawrence General hospital, from injuries sustained in the accident which happened near Chadwick Street about 1 a.m. Saturday. O'Hagan was a passenger in a car being driven by Sean Collins, 20, 6 Tamys Lane, Andover, who was admitted to Lawrence General intensive care unit and listed in critical but stable condition Wednesday.

The Collins car was in contact with one driven by Norbert J. White, 61, of 296 High St., Ipswich, a selectman in that community, who was dead on arrival at Lawrence General hospital. His wife, Nancy, 59, was admitted for treatment of injuries sustained in the accident and listed in good condition on Wednesday.

Also admitted to the hospital was Brendan O'Hagan, twin brother of Brian, who was also a passenger in the Collins car. He was released from the hospital early this week.

North Andover police report that the Collins car was heading toward Andover and had apparently pulled out to pass another car, lost control of the vehicle and slid sideways and was struck by the White car which was travelling in the direction of Haverhill.

A funeral Mass was celebrated Monday at St. Robert Bellarmine church, Andover for Brian O'Hagan. Burial was in Spring Grove cemetery.

A graduate of Greater Lawrence Regional Vocational Technical High School, he was employed by Hanby and Jolie, Inc. of Andover and attended St.

Robert Bellarmine Church, West Andover.

He is survived by his parents, James M. and Claire (Molloy) O'Hagan of Marlton, New Jersey, and Darren, Patrick, Brenden and Liam, all of Andover; four sisters, Colleen, wife of James Tompkins of Bradford; Deirdre Ellen wife of Michael Demers of Andover, and Rosemary and Siobhan, both of Andover; his paternal grandmother, Margaret M. O'Hagan of Andover and his maternal grandparents, Anna and Frank Molloy of Lawrence, several aunts, uncles, nieces and nephews.

Donations may be made to the charity of one's own choice.

Mrs. Seman Awarded Top Honor

Mary P. Seman of 134 Lovejoy Road, Andover, was honored recently for her outstanding service to the United States Air Force.

She was presented the Air Force Meritorious Civilian Service Medal, the second highest award that can be bestowed upon a civilian. Presiding over the award ceremony was Col. Donald F. Connors, former Director of the Surveillance and Navigation Systems Deputy at the Air Force Electronic Systems Division.

The Andover woman was cited for her "outstanding leadership and managerial abilities." Particularly noteworthy was the important role she had in the smooth transition of several major reorganizations which occurred here within the past five years. Because of Mrs. Seman's administrative knowledge and managerial talents, work schedule disruptions were kept at a minimum.

Mrs. Seman, who served as an administrative officer, retired in June after 37 years of government service. Her last 17 years were here at Hanscom Air Force Base.

The Florida manatee (sea cow) may be extinct in 20 years. Fifty years ago it ranged from the Carolinas around to Texas; now it lives along the south coast of Florida where its survival depends on the Everglades National Park. The manatee eats 100-200 pounds of aquatic plants a day; one calf is born every three years, Massachusetts Audubon tells us.

An Unpleasant Affair

J. Maynard Austin, Andover's town manager for eight years, ended his tenure Tuesday night with the submission of his resignation to the selectmen.

It brought to an end a long period of unpleasantness for the manager and the town he served as chief administrator longer than his two predecessors.

For Austin, the resignation route may have been a relief to him personally, but a most unpleasant manner in which to leave the office.

For the selectmen, the resignation was, in some ways a relief from troubles the majority brought on themselves and ultimately unable to escape from a moral responsibility committed last April.

Austin's tenure has been in trouble for over a year, and in January of this year a majority of the board said his contract would not be renewed at its expiration at the end of August.

When there was a change in the membership of the board following the March election, four members — Selectmen Albert Cole, Edward Harris, Richard J. Bowen and Mrs. Susan T. Poore — announced their intent to continue Austin's term for two more years thus completing a five year appointment.

In late August, just prior to renewal time, legal hassles erupted over the charter provisions which say that appointment of a manager is for a five year term. While legal authorities differed on how long a person could be appointed to the managerial post, the majority of the board decided to make Austin acting manager with 60 days notice, if they chose to dismiss him.

It became obvious to Austin that not only was his tenure in jeopardy, but the functioning of the town was being hampered by the problems between he and the majority of the board.

He sought a meeting with Selectman Richard J. Bowen in an attempt to effect an orderly transfer of the office and provide some compensation to him while he sought a managerial or municipal position elsewhere.

This was discussed in an executive session a week ago Tuesday and it appeared to be in satisfactory order, except that Austin wanted some assurance that the six months salary would be forthcoming.

Rather than getting to assurances, some board members felt their integrity was being doubted, that they could not be trusted.

Well, we doubt that Mr. Austin intended to impugn anyone's integrity, or indicate distrust, but based on past actions he indeed had a right to be skeptical.

The board and the manager then delved into such legalities as how he could be retained as an advisor, consultant, or whatever, include his accrued sick leave and vacation time, to add up to the six months.

All of which led up to another go 'round on Tuesday night as all parties attempted to resolve the issue.

While still unable to get assurance from the selectmen as to providing the six month request, Austin ultimately made a decision to offer his resignation and get it over with.

Ultimately, the proposal made a week ago by Selectman Bowen has basically prevailed, with Philip Salamone, the appointee to the board in May, providing what might be termed the guaranteed majority on Tuesday night.

That part of the agreement will have to be carried out by the acting town manager, Sheldon S. Cohen.

We have little doubt that in such a capacity, Cohen would conform to the will of the majority of the board, and make the necessary appointment of Austin to some advisory capacity, outside of the administrative area of the town affairs.

Any legalities involved should be worked out and the agreement consummated in order to conform to what can best be described as a moral obligation.

Canine Capers Again

The October town meeting convenes Monday night in Memorial auditorium at East Junior High, with numerous items of varying import facing the voters.

But, we surmise, the one item which will capture the most attention will be the one conveniently placed at the end of the warrant, no doubt to insure a quorum throughout, and dealing with the ever-popular freedom for Andover canines.

A revised dog leash law, with accompanying amendments, may well not even get to the discussion stage until Tuesday night, based on the practice of town meeting sessions not extending beyond 10:30 p.m.

While town officials have carefully prepared the warrant for attention to numerous items, many having a dollar value and an effect on the tax rate, it is safe to say that it will be the dogs which will ultimately bring the voters to the forum.

Last May, at the annual town meeting, the largest turnout for the four-night session was on the evening that the leash law was discussed.

At that time, a strict leash law was approved by an overwhelming majority of those present. The bylaw approved was subsequently rejected by the office of the attorney general, noting that as an amendment to the warrant item, insufficient warning has been provided the voters.

The same situation is due to surface again Monday night. Sidney P. White has advertised his intent to amend the leash law, to be more in line with what was approved last May.

A group, known as Citizens for Humane Dog Control, have proposed a more liberal bylaw for keeping dogs under control.

Anticipated is a reiteration of arguments provided last May, both for and against effective dog control.

There is little doubt that some control is needed.

It amounts to realization of having a dog as a pet is one thing, caring for it and the property of others is another.

There are those with responsibility in this regard.

But, there would appear to be far too many in this town and others who fail to exercise proper control over their dogs, thus the need for effective restraint.

Broken trash bags, a weekly occurrence, canines walking in packs, reminders of their presence on lawns, sidewalks and other properties, all contribute to the desire for more effective control of dogs.

In what form the restraint takes place will be decided by the voters on either Monday or Tuesday night, and we feel confident that all legal ramifications of the bylaw and its proposed amendments will have been cared for before the opening gavel.

WEEKLY SPECIAL

The Invisible Owners

By JACK ANDERSON and JOE SPEAR

WASHINGTON — Of all the stories we have investigated, one of the most depressing is the nursing home scandal. Some nursing homes treat their helpless patients more like prisoners.

Too many homes are interested only in collecting medicare money. This money is intended for the care of the elderly. But all too often, the elderly get shabby care and the nursing home owners get rich.

Some owners hide behind a complicated maze of corporations. Their names can't be found on the nursing home records. Yet these invisible owners are pocketing huge amounts of medicare money.

Congress is trying to cut through the web that obscures these owners. One investigator told us that the federal government has no idea who really owns America's nursing homes.

The hidden owners, meanwhile, may not be paying income tax on their earnings. They have a number of money-making schemes. The nursing home may buy services from other companies that are secretly controlled by its owner.

Or the home may declare bankruptcy to avoid paying off its creditors. Yet the home's profits are actually hidden by the owner in other corporations. This is called "creative bankruptcy."

Investigators have discovered this kind of fraud, for example, in Connecticut's nursing homes. The ripoff runs into hundreds of thousands of dollars.

Monumental Mistake: President Carter lost his showdown with the Senate over natural gas prices. But the real story was missed. The president lost because his aides couldn't count. It was a major blunder.

Two weeks ago, the Senate was debating whether to lift price controls on natural gas. Carter opposed deregulation of gas prices. He claimed it was a multibillion-dollar ripoff of the consumers.

Two Democratic senators mounted a week-long filibuster against deregulating gas prices. They were South Dakota's James Abourezk and Ohio's Howard Metzenbaum. They were cheered on by the White House. When Metzenbaum offered to stop the filibuster, Energy Secretary James Schlesinger told him to keep talking.

But last week, Senate Democratic Leader Robert Byrd persuaded the White House to help him break the filibuster. Byrd worked out the strategy with Vice President Walter Mondale.

Metzenbaum learned that the White House had switched sides. He rushed to see the vice president. But Metzenbaum couldn't get past Mondale's staff. Later, Metzenbaum cornered the vice president in his Senate chair.

Mondale told the ruffled senator not to worry. He said the White House had the votes to prevent deregulation. A White House lobbyist told Abourezk the same thing — that the White House had lined up enough votes to win.

Well, it turned out that the White House aides couldn't count. The Senate voted to deregulate gas prices by a 50 to 46 margin.

Poorest Program: President Carter's energy program, meanwhile, is in a shambles on Capitol Hill. It may be for the best. A confidential House study of Carter's plan charges that his energy proposals will cause the most hardship for the poor.

The president wants to give tax rebates to offset the higher energy prices. But even with the rebate, the study claims, "the burden will hit low-income households two to three times as hard as it will hit high income households. The poorest 20 percent of the American people will pay three to four times as much of their total income."

The tax breaks planned for the poor will also take up to two years to go into effect. The report also charges that the White House plan to weatherize homes will benefit mainly the rich. Only a small fraction of those who live in poverty, the report predicts, will be able to get their homes insulated by 1985.

The congressional study blasts the White House experts for letting the oil industry deceive them. The report scoffs at the oil companies' claim that they need higher prices and tax breaks to finance their search for more energy.

The study declares bluntly that the White House "simply does not know how much it costs, on the average, to produce a barrel of oil."

Pathetic Product Recall: The Consumer Product Safety Commission is trying urgently to recall some dangerous products. A warning has gone out to consumers to bring back 115,000 smoke detectors with faulty wiring. They often start fires instead of preventing them.

Yet the commission has retrieved only 28 percent of them. This means 80,000 dangerous smoke detectors are still being used.

The same is true of certain baby carriages that have cut off babies' fingers while being opened and closed. The commission has gotten back only 2,500 out of 15,000.

A spokesman admitted the results are "pathetic." But he blamed the consumers for not responding.

CUT CAR COSTS WITH SAV-CAR AND LAWRENCE SAVINGS BANK

LSB wants to help stop car theft and give you a break on insurance costs at the same time, so they're offering the SAV-CAR device at considerable savings to protect your automobile.

SAV-CAR's armored steel lock requires at least 15 minutes to sever with a special cutting tool. The operating key is one in 80,000, and there is no master. The armored steel cable protecting the electrical wires can't be pulled loose and closes off completely on both sides if it's cut. The armored steel cap can only be removed by a trained mechanic with a special drill. That takes 20 minutes.

With SAV-CAR, it isn't worth the car thief's time and skill to steal your automobile.

LSB IS MAKING THE SAV-CAR AVAILABLE AT ONLY $32.50 plus tax to anyone.

However, if you negotiate an Auto Loan at LSB, it's yours for just $18.00 (plus tax based on $32.50 retail). Minimum loan is $2000 to qualify.

Installation is only $12.50 at local authorized installation centers.

SAV-CAR has been approved by the State Insurance Commission, so installation makes you eligible for a 15% discount on comprehensive insurance costs under current regulations.

See LSB today. Save on your car loan, your insurance costs and help stop auto theft. LSB is working for you to make owning and operating a car more economical.

Warriors Frustrate Methuen, 14-12

By Rick Harrison

Nobody said it was going to be easy ... and it wasn't.

The Andover High football team needed two touchdowns and 97 yards rushing from healthy quarterback Dan Welsh, two perfect conversion kicks by Manny Silva, and some clutch defensive work by Paul Dubose and Mike Hart before subduing stubborn Methuen High 14-12 in Merrimack Valley Conference play last Sunday at Lovely Field.

The victory, Andover's third straight, left the Golden Warriors at 4-1 overall and locked in a four-way tie for second place in the Conference standings at 3-1.

For rookie Head Coach Larry Klimas the loss merely added to a string of frustrations this season. The Rangers are probably the toughest 0-4-1 team in the State, having lost other games to Wilmington (6-0), Tewksbury in the final minute (12-6) and North Andover (1-0). Methuen also tied Central Catholic, 0-0.

Welsh directed Andover's 258-yard offense almost flawlessly, hitting 8-of-16 passes for 83 yards and topping all rushers with his 97 yards in 16 carries.

Silva's educated toe actually provided the slim margin of victory, as Manny drilled his 10th and 11th placements through the uprights with little difficulty.

Dubose and Hart entered the picture with five minutes left in the game, after Methuen closed to 14-13, as they broke through to sack Rangers' quarterback Kevin Bradley and thwart the try for the tying two-point conversion.

Lightening Strikes

All the pre-game talk about Methuen's rugged defense looked like false propaganda, when Andover took a Bradley punt and marched easily downfield 65 yards in nine plays during its first possession for a quick 7-0 lead.

Welsh opened the trek with a four yard run, then spotted junior Eddie Collins for a 20-yard pass completion at the Rangers' 41.

Rick Collins sped five yards on a pitch-out, and Welsh spied Ed Collins again for a 16 yard advance to the 21. Welsh scampered 10 yards on a keeper, then swept the right side and bulled his way to paydirt for his first TD of the season.

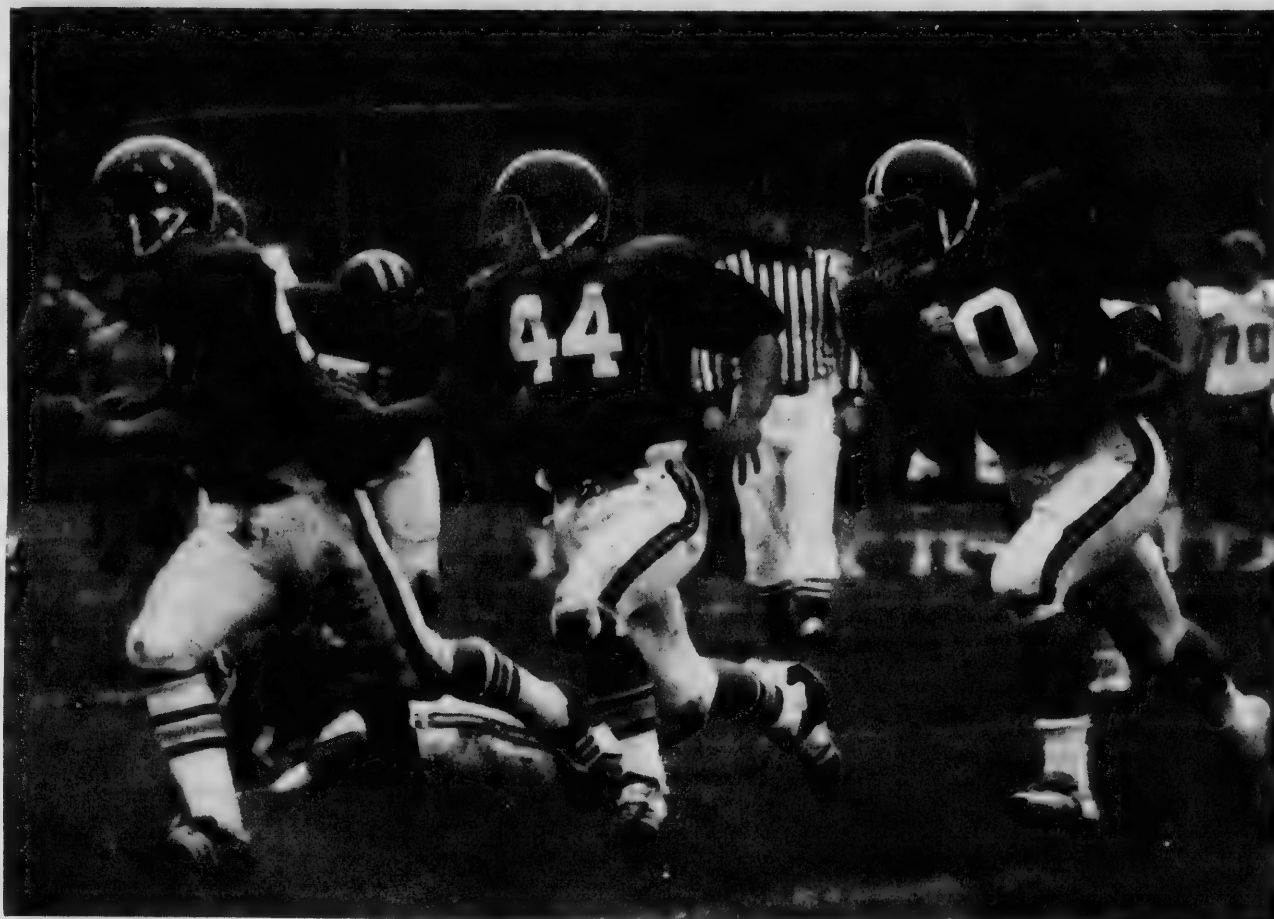

Silva's kick was true and the Warriors were ahead 7-0 at 5:49 of the first quarter.

Nothing to it.

Turnovers Hurt

Andover, plagued by sloppy play the week before against Austin Prep, gave the Rangers a golden opportunity late in the opening stanza by committing the first of three turnovers ... a fumble which junior Gary Wells recovered at the AHS 31.

The Warriors' defense, led on this series by Mark Hopkins, Len Driscoll and Greg Gardner, stopped the visitors cold. Methuen surrendered on downs when a long pass intended for Frank Riley fell incomplete at the goalline.

Andover was on the wrong end of a tough break moments later, early in the second period, when a 42 yard aerial bomb from Welsh to Joe Terrion was caught barely out of bounds at the Methuen 34.

Riley backtracked Dave Alexander's fine punt 20 yards to the Warriors' 46 but the Methuen offense, which had produced just one touchdown in three previous outings, sputtered again thanks to Kirk Skinner, Hopkins and Hart.

Bradley's ensuing punt put AHS at its own 25, initiating a drive to the Rangers;

Dan Welsh is off for a good gain during Andover vs. Methuen football action Sunday afternoon. Providing the 26 that featured passes to Terrion (10 yards), Rick Collins (nine yards) and fine runs by Rick Collins (twice for 17 yards), Ed Collins and Welsh.

At this point a second down pass, intended for Paul Farnham who was well-covered all afternoon, was intercepted by Dave Deneau at the Methuen five.

blocking are Ray Lynch and Ed Collings (44).

The Rangers, sparked by the legwork of Ron McGrath and Kevin Tarr, along with a facemask penalty against AHS, drove down to the Warriors' 33 yard line late in the half.

Bradley fired his first pass completion of the afternoon to McGrath, good for 14 yards at the Andover 19, but at this juncture the half closed with Coach Dick Collins' crew atop a 7-0 lead.

Rangers Retaliate

Andover went nowhere with the second half kickoff, and Jon Morin set up Methuen's first TD with a flashy 28 yard return of Dave Alexander's punt.

McGrath clicked off a 36 yard run to the AHS four on second down. He then bucked to the one foot line, from where Bradley snuck over to cut the gap to 7-6 at 3:04 of the third session.

Bradley dropped back to pass for the go-ahead points, but his toss for Dave Deneau was a bit overthrown.

Midway through the quarter the Warriors were moving, sparked by the running of Ray Lynch and Welsh, but a freak fumble after an 11-yard pass completion to Terrion was recovered by Methuen's Mike Ford at the Rangers' 43.

Four plays and a costly personal foul penalty later MSH had to punt, and Andover proceeded to drive 59 yards in 11 plays for its second touchdown during the first minute of the fourth period.

Welsh did the bulk of the running in the drive, erupting for a 30 yard gain on a sweep right, and muscling just over three yards on a crucial fourth down and three plays from the M-18.

An 11 yard pass to Terrion took the ball down to the three, and the payoff was another Welsh keeper around the right side.

Silva's 11th seasonal PAT kick upped the count to 14-6 at 0:36 of the final session.

The Rangers bounced right back on the subsequent kickoff, moving 75 yards in nine plays to cut the deficit back to 14-12.

Key plays were a pair of Bradley to Bob McEneaney passes for 19 and 11 yards, and strong running by McGrath and Tarr.

The touchdown contained an element of luck, as Bradley uncorked a 38 yard pass to Dave Deneau. The aerial was slightly underthrown, and Warriors' defender Ed Hunter got a hand on the ball and tipped it.

As the ball went towards the turf Deneau made a dive for it and picked it off for the touchdown.

Deneau appeared to the target again on the attempted tying conversion, but greetings from Bubose and Hart squelched the bid with 4:53 to play.

Onside Kick

Methuen tried an onside kick, but the ball traveled only nine yards giving AHS possession at the Rangers' 49.

The Warriors were stymied and punted the ball away with 3:49 left. Methuen took control at its 18, and Hopkins nailed McGrath after a one yard gain on first down.

Mike Hart pressured Bradley and tipped his second down pass to the ground. Third down brought a screen pass to McGrath, but Rick Collins nailed him with a submarine tackle after a five yard pickup.

With 2:34 to go Bradley punted the ball away ... and Methuen never saw it again. Eddie Collins ran for eight yards, Dubose added one and Welsh rambled 19 yards for the first down.

Lynch bulled four yards with 1:00 remaining, and Ed Collins collected 10 more for the clinching first down. Two plays later, with the ball at the Rangers' 11, time expired.

Statistics

The statistics were extremely close up and down the line.

Andover had the edge in first downs, 13-10, yards rushing, 175-154, yards passing, 83-77, total yardage from scrimmage, 258-231, and in scrimmage plays, 55-54.

Individually, after Welsh, Rick Collins rushed for 33 yards in seven carries, Ed Collins for 23 in five lugs, Ray Lynch for 13 in just three totes, and Greg Gardner for eight in two attempts.

The Methuen ground game saw McGrath chew up 83 yards in 15 tries and Tarr 61 yards in 18 carries.

Ed Collins caught three Welsh passes for 41 yards, Terrion three for 32 yards, and Rick Collins two for 10 yards. Farnham, for the second time this season, was held without a reception.

McEneaney snared two Bradley tosses for 30 yards, McGrath two for 19 yards, and Deneau one for 38 yards and the touchdown.

Schedule ... Billerica

Andover has a tough task ahead this Saturday, traveling to the Marshall Middle School to battle potent Billerica High.

The Indians are also tied for second place in the MVC at 3-1, as are Chelmsford and Tewksbury. All are chasing Dracut, 4-0.

Billerica, hit with a rash of pre-season injuries, lost its opening game to Ipswich High, 33-26, and then was edged out in the rain by Dracut, 7-6.

Since that time the Indians have won three straight, beating Lawrence Central Catholic, 22-7, and defending co-champions Tewksbury, 21-16, and Wilmington, 7-0.

Billerica possesses an excellent left-handed quarterback in Phil Tuminelli, who has pitched five TD passes in five games. Last weekend he hit 10-of-25 passes against Wilmington.

The backfield features a rotation of our outstanding runners, all very quick. Leading the attack is Jim Wright, who was injured earlier this year but returned against Tewksbury and Wilmington.

Last season Wright rushed for better than 1,000 yards and scored over 90 points. Upon his return two weeks ago he gained 126 yards and scored twice to spark the win over Tewksbury. He, like all Indians' backs, was throttled by Wilmington.

The other top-notch ballcarriers are Gary Guarino, Brian Heffer, and Rich Glavin.

Both Galvin and Larry Harlow are prime pass receivers.

Billerica whipped Andover in a wide-open game last year, and adding extra interest to this clash annually is the fact Indians' Head Coach Clyde Meyerhoefer and AHS assistant Dick Bourdelais were classmates, teammates and roommates at the University of Massachusetts several years ago.

Action is fast and furious on Saturdays as the Andover Soccer Association conducts its weekly schedule. Here, at the Andover high fields, the younger set provide the action despite the damp, overcast skies.

On The Soccer Fields

By She Livermore

The Andover Soccer Association Season is just past the halfway point and it is interesting to observe how each team has improved in such a short space of time. New and old members of the league are playing the game so well and this was very obvious last weekend when certain teams met for the second time and found the competition much stronger.

That's what soccer is all about, learning the basic skills and getting lots of healthy exercise. Results of Sunday's games are as follows:

Junior Division: Metros 3, Sounders 1

The Metros played the Sounders in an exciting game which saw the ball pass back and fourth as both teams fought for its possession. Each quarter lasted but ten minutes and all of the goals were scored in the first two quarters. The Metros' goals were booted in by Timmy Smith and Nicky Coon(2), whilst David Riddeford scored for the Sounders. Fine performances were turned in by Scott Livermore and Vered Pomerantz of the Metros, as well as David Riddeford and Thatcher Worthen of the Sounders.

Cosmos 2, BiCentennials 0

The Cosmos played against the BiCentennials in a tight game which saw plenty of action but no goals until the last two quarters, although the Cosmos made many attempts to score, all successfully blocked by goalies Kevin Henderson and Tommy Morton. In the second half, Chris Sapuppo and David Penney managed to get goals into the BiCentennials' nets, giving them the win. Fine performances were turned in by Erin Spooner, Jason Tucker and David Pratt of the Cosmos, as well as David Cavanaugh of the BiCentennials.

Aztecs 2, Whitecaps

The Aztecs played the Whitecaps in a heavy downpour, which didn't dampen the enthusiasm of the players. Both teams were evenly matched and they provided the spectators with some exciting moments as they tried to penetrate each other's defense lines. The Whitecaps took the lead when Steven Redgate and Richard Bordelais booted goals in to the Aztecs' nets.

The Aztecs came on strong in the final quarter and tied the game when Jamie O'Brien booted in two goals, one on an assist from Ronnie Forbes. Fine performances were turned in by Deniece Lennick and Jim Pathiakis of the Aztecs, as well as Eric McDowell and Chris McAnally of the Whitecaps.

Intermediate Division

Rowdies 5, Tornadoes 2

In what was probably the most exciting game of the day, the Rowdies proved themselves to be a very aggressive team and they dominated most of the play. The Tornadoes made many attempts to penetrate their goal area but brilliant defensive tactics prevented them from so doing. The Rowdies' goals were booted in by Fran Sullivan (3), John Tremblay, and Ted McEnroe, whilst Andrew Sartory and Barry Tucker scored for the Tornadoes. Fine performances were turned in by David Bartle and Shawn Abate of the Tornadoes, and the entire Rowdies team.

Timbers 7, Kicks 0

The Timbers played the Kicks in a heavy downpour which saw parents huddling under trees in a vain attempt to keep dry! The Kicks played a great game but they could not thwart the determination of the Timbers players to score goals. Successful booters for the Timbers were Glenn Livermore (2), Steve McDowell, John Drake, Brian McAnally, Mosa Kaeel and Eric Neyman. Kicks' player Chris Casey played an outstanding game.

Senior Division

Strikers 4, Quicksilvers 1

The Strikers played a strong offensive game against the Quicksilvers and despite great defense tactics, they managed to score two goals in the first half. The Quicksilvers tried to even it up in the second half and did score one goal, however, the Strikers booted in two more to give them the win. The Strikers' goals were scored by John Lawless, Bill Depper, Harris Levinson and Norbert Ohlenbusch, whilst Paul Thoday booted in the Quicksilvers' goal. Fine performances were turned in by Frank Drake and Norbert Ohlenbusch of the Strikers, as well as Andrew Halbach, Scott Arnold and Glen McAnally of the Quicksilvers.

Stings 1, Earthquakes 1

The game between the Stings and the Earthquakes remained scoreless until the final quarter as both teams were evenly matched and the ball passed back and forth up and down the field. Both teams were each credited with a goal in the final quarter, resulting in a tie game. The Stings' goal was booted in by Peter Bradford. Fine performances were turned in by Mike Franz, Brandon Bachner and Peter Bradford of the Stings, as well as David Collins, Dick Kelley and Goalie Adam Wise of the Earthquakes.

Division 4:

Andover Stars 6, Hamilton 1

The Andover Stars played at home on Sunday against a team from Hamilton and once again proved themselves to be very competitive. They dominated most of the play and Hamilton found it very difficult to penetrate their superb defense line. Andover booted in six goals, three of which were scored by Connie Corkery, followed by teammates Elaine Scanlon, Karen Walmsley and Sara Michelle Sapuppo. Fine performances were turned in by Michelle Poisson, Kathy Neaves and Alyssa McCabe.

Diplomats 2, Chelmsford 1

The Andover Diplomats played against Chelmsford in a heavy downpour on Sunday in an exciting game which saw both teams battling for possession of the ball. Andover scored in the first quarter when Julie Kinsky booted one into the Chelmsford nets on a pass from Sue Aiello. The Chelmsford team were awarded a penalty goal kick in the fourth quarter which they successfully completed, making it a tie game. Andover worked hard to score another goal and they succeeded when Kelly Shannon booted one in, to make Andover the victors. Fine performances were turned in by Deborah Wiseman and Marcial Lebowitz.

Enlists In Air Force

John W. McEvoy, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas J. McEvoy of 21 Walnut Ave., North Andover, recently entered the Air Force Delayed Enlistment Program according to Staff Sergeant Bill Sowers, Air Force Recruiter in Lawrence.

The 1977 graduate of North Andover High School is scheduled to leave for basic training at Lackland Air Force Base near San Antonio, Texas, Dec. 27.

Plans are for McEvoy to receive technical training in the security specialist career field.

The Language of Flowers

by Gerry Trull

No matter who you are inviting to Thanksgiving or Christmas dinner, the Schlumberger family should be included in your holiday plans. An unusual group of cacti, to be sure, but so lovely to have around. These flowering beauties bloom at Thanksgiving, Christmas and Easter — depending on the variety you choose. And the colors brighten up the festivities in tones of soft pink, salmon and purple. The more crowded and potbound, the better the flowers. Keep them well watered, allow good drainage and enjoy their company all through the holiday season.

At TRULL'S MILL HILL FLOWER CENTER, 411 River Rd., 851-6161 you'll find a full selection of fresh, dried and artificial flowers to brighten your home through every season. Whether you're thinking of surprising your favorite goblin with flowers on Hallowe'en or anticipating floral decorations for Christmas, we have what you want; come in and see us. Hours: 9-5:30, Mon-Sat.

Redskins Set League Pace

By Rick Harrison

The West Andover Redskins gained sole possession of first place, remained unscored upon, and looked like the team to beat in the Andover Junior Football League following a 12-0 whitewash of the Ballardvale Browns last Sunday at the East Junior High Playstead field.

In other action, the defending champ Central Colts blanked the Shawsheen Patriots, 12-0, and the Bancroft Dolphins rallied to edge the Indian Ridge Vikings, 12-0.

The Redskins are the only 2-0-0 team after two weeks of action, having outscored the opposition 24-0, while the colts and Dolphins are close behind at 1-0-1.

Redskins, 12-0
West Andover and Ballardvale fought to a 0-0 standoff in the first half, but single touchdowns in the third and fourth quarters enabled the Skins to dump the Browns (1-1).

The Browns threatened immediately in the first period on a fine 35 yard pass-and-run completion from quarterback Frank Depiano to Chris O'Reilly.

The drive was halted when Barney Ahouse intercepted a pass, however, and the rest of the half produced no serious bids by either club.

The Ballardvale crew received the second half kickoff and Bob Sharpe turned in a classy 20 yard return. Moments later the Browns fumbled the ball away, the first of a series of bobbles by both teams that saw the ball change hands numerous times.

Coach Joe Tisbert's West Andover squad finally got untracked and began to move when Roger Fitzgerald completed a 10 yard pass, and Robbie Harrison added a key first down on a quarterback sneak.

Pete Ouellette ripped off a six yard gain, and then Harrison rambled 35 yards to paydirt on a keeper for his second touchdown of the season.

Mark Jensen set up the fourth quarter insurance TD for the Skins, intercepting a pass that set the drive in motion. West Andover moved for three first downs before QB Jim Terrion scored on a keeper.

Offensive standouts for the winners were Robbie Slayton, Harrison, Jensen, Ahouse, Terrion and Ouellette.

WA defensive stars included Eddie McEvoy and Barney Ahouse.

The Browns' attack was guided by Ernie Baldwin, Dave Ouellette, Neil Robinson, Depiano and O'Reilly.

On defense the Ballardvale contingent was led by Larry Cuddy, Barry Moore, Wayne Giles, Scott Crabtree, Gabe Cordouez, Chris O'Reilly and Frank Depiano.

Dolphins, 12-6
The revitalized Bancroft Dolphins rallied from a 6-0 first period deficit to keep the Vikings winless.

The Dolphins took the opening kickoff in the afternoon's first game, moving for a pair of first downs before the Indian Ridge defense dug in and got stubborn.

Speedy Chris Coots sprinted 35 yards on the Vikes' first possession, and only a fine open field tackle by Joel Brother prevented the touchdown.

The Vikes were merely delayed, however, as the march continued on a key first down pass completion to E. J. Perry. Two plays later Tom Powers pitched a touchdown aerial to Coots for the Vikings' first score of the season.

Bancroft came right back to tie it 6-6 at halftime, taking the ensuing kickoff and driving for a TD. Joe Keefe capped the march with a 35 yard scoring jaunt.

The Dolphins' B team controlled third period action and set up the winning touchdown, giving the A team control at the Indian Ridge five yard line as the fourth quarter opened.

Joe Keefe notched his second touchdown of the game early in that final stanza, making it 12-6, and the score stood up.

Pacing the Bancroft offense were Mark Walsh, Chris Scarpa, Chris Cormier, Dean LoPresti and Keefe.

On the defensive side the key people were Joel Brother and Mike Sanchez, who made five tackles apiece, Kevin Lannan, Ken Doherty, Kevin Lynch, Dick Travis, Bill DiAdamo, Jim Wiseman, Mike Mercier, Lou Gleason, Scott Newman, Joe Keefe and Chris Cormier.

Powering the Vikings' attack were Dan Poore, Mark LaHood, Powers, Perry and Coots.

Defensive standouts included Christ Coots with six tackles, Tom Matinnis (five stops), E. J. Perry, Bobby French, Dan Poore, Tom Duncan (five tackles), yne Carver, Shane Smith, Charlie Ziegenbein, Steve Duncan, Tim Perry, Billy Vickers and Mike Redgate.

Colts, 12-0
The Central Colts stretched their two-season undefeated streak through seven games (6-0-1), chalking up touchdowns in the second and fourth quarters enroute to a soggy 12-0 conquest of the Patriots.

These two teams had the misfortune of playing in the rain, following the beautiful football weather earlier in the afternoon. J. B. Fitzgerald pounced on a Shawsheen fumble in the second period to start the Colts on their way to victory.

Central moved to a pair of first downs behind the hard running of Mike Lucey and Steve Green. The Pats stalled the drive, but quickly fumbled again with Joel Hughes covering the loose ball for the Colts.

J. B. Fitzgerald wasted little time on

JV's Trounce St. Johns

By Ted Teichert

The Andover JV soccer team played St. Johns last week and came home with a 3-0 victory of 3-0.

Andover started the scoring with a goal from Bob Stammers. The play formed when sophomore Mark Reed passed the ball to Stammers in front of the goal. The goal came in the second period after a relatively quiet first period.

It wasn't until the third period when Bob Wilkins scored a unassisted goal to make the score 2-0. About midway through the fourth period Bob Stammers put the game away with the final goal of the game. Peter Price crossed the ball from the left wing position and booted the ball to Stammers who then popped it in to score again.

Andover's goalie Jeff Nicastro put on another excellent performance with stopping all eight shots on goal. This was Jeff's first shut-out of the year.

Kern Bayard, back, does some defensive work as he nears 20 goal mark for Tufts.

Nears 20 Goal Mark

Kern Bayard, a senior center forward from Andover, is closing in on the magic number of 20 career goals with the Tufts University soccer team this season.

Bayard struck for his third goal of the season and assisted on another marker as Tufts tripped Boston College, 3-1, at Ellis Oval, Medford recently.

That marked Bayard's 18th career goal in two and one-half varsity seasons and evened the Tufts 1977 record at 2-2-1. He is the leading scorer on this year's team with three goals and two assists for five points.

Kern has paced the Jumbos in scoring for the last two seasons as Tufts compiled an overall record of 18-10-2.

Mickey Mantle holds the major league strike out record — 1,710 times.

"Kern is one of the best center forwards in New England. He has great skill handling the ball and he's a threat to score from 25 yards in. He also has great jumping skill and that makes him a threat to head the ball for goals," said Jerry Clinton, who is in his fourth year as Tufts' head soccer coach.

A former soccer and basketball standout at the Taft School, Kern is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Keder Bayard, of Coy House, Phillips Academy.

Girls Swim To 5-1 Record

The AHS Girls Swim Team notched 3 more wins this past week bringing their record to an impressive 5 wins and one loss.

The first win came against Arlington, 116 to 52. Young, Dehm, Neuman, and Sonnerschmidt took the 200 medley relay in 2:42.9. Linda Fitzgerald swam a strong 200 free in 2:14.7. Linda Jensen took the 200 I.M. in 2:36.4. The 50 free was won by Patti Pelc in 27.6. Mary Ellen Wesson took first in diving. Katie Scanlon got the butterfly out of her stomach and put them to work in the pool and took the 100 fly in 1:25. Jill Kennedy was first in the 100 free in 1:08.9. Eileen Hannawalt was first in the 500 free in 6:41.4. Dale Johnson led the way in the 100 back with a time of 1:20. The 400 free relay team of Gall, D. Wesson, Wall, and Mellet took first in 4:52.6.

Andover's next big win was against Medford, 101 to 71. The Warrior's took first's in every event except one. Patti Pelc continued her winning ways by taking the 50 free 27.5 and the 100 free in 1:01. Anne Hart also had a double win. She won the 100 fly in 1:14 and the 200 I.M. in 2:36. Linda Fitzgerald was 1st in the 200 free in 2:14. Eileen Hannawalt won by a handtouch over team mate Diane Clendaniel in the 500 free. Both were timed in 6:26. Beth Pelc swam a strong 100 breast winning that race in 1:21. Andover also took the 200 medley relay and 400 free relay.

Winchester vs. Andover was a squeaker, but the Warriors came out on top 49 to 34. Patti Pelc scored a double win again by taking the 50 free and 100 free, and Linda Fitzgerald did the same by taking the 200 free and 100 back. Other firsts came from Mary Ellen Wesson in diving, Diane Clendaniel in the 500 free and the 400 free relay team of Hart, Wesson, P. Pelc, and Fitzgerald.

Most fish around Antarctica live on the ocean bottom; few are surface swimmers.

A strong Marblehead team handed the Warriors their only loss by having too much depth. However there was one high note from the AHS squad. Captain Patti Pelc managed a double win by taking the 50 free in 27.6 and the 100 free in 1:02.

Mention is made of those that don't always get the recognition but are the true "backbone" of the team; Kleshinsky, Wall, D. Wesson, D. Johnson, K. Johnson, Mellett, Coots, Colpitts, Lindholm, Carrick, Keegan, Yuska, Bornesian, Gall, Kennedy, McLarney, S. Young, Neuman, Sonnerschmidt, Dehm, Goodwin, Gruen, Clevesy, Morris, Mattson, Palmer, Lange, Russell. They have all helped contribute to that final score.

this second chance, tossing a 16 yard TD strike to Mike Lucey ... his second touch-down of the campaign.

The Patriots did some rumbling in the third quarter, as their B team controlled the play before finally being stopped by the Colts.

Steve Green scored the insurance touchdown to cap a Colts' march in the final quarter.

Topping the Central offense were Tim O'Shea, J.B. Fitzgerald, Lucey and Green, while on defense the top players included Ricky Dow, Tom Finneran, Shawn O'Shea, Larry Torrisi, Bryan Looney and Glen Markey.

The Pats' offense had fine efforts from Bob Stabile, Mark Grams, Eric Fitzpatrick and John Hopwood.

Shawsheen defensive standouts were Scott Robichaud, John Siudut, Jack Boner, Steve Lacourse, Mike Donlan, Tim Hart and Ron Hero.

Scoring Race

Three players are tied for the individual scoring leadership in the AJFL with two touchdowns for 12 points apiece.

Heading the list are Robbie Harrison of the Redskins, Mike Lucey of the Colts and Joe Keefe of the Dolphins.

Schedule

This Sunday's AJFL tripleheader at the Playstead Field opens with the Colts against the Browns at 12 noon.

Following in order will be the Vikings-Patriots game and the Redskins-Dolphins showdown.

The round of games postponed on Sunday, October 9 by heavy rain will be made up on November 6.

Church League Meeting

The Andover Church Basketball league will hold a meeting Wednesday, Oct. 26, at Ballard Vale United church. The session is being held for all those interested in assisting the league in the upcoming season. The league is open to youths aged eight to 15.

Registration forms are available at the following churches: St. Augustine's, St. Robert's, Ballard Vale United, West Parish, Andover Baptist, South and Christ Episcopal.

Other churches interested in enrolling a team in the league should attend the Oct. 26 meeting or contact Dan Rathbun, 31 Argilla Road, league president.

Youngsters not affiliated with a church, but desirous of participating may obtain registration forms at the Andover Sport Shop.

Carl Gutterman does some fancy footwork during Tuesday Afternoon game with Wilmington.

Warriors Drop From First Place

It was a very frustrating week for the Warrior Booters last week and Mother Nature helped contribute to the frustration.

Two games were postponed, Saturday morning's game against Tewksbury will be played at Tewksbury on Thursday afternoon, and Monday's game against Wilmington will have been played on Tuesday.

The most frustrating part of the week was the 0 to 0 tie with St. John's of Danvers. It was the loss of the point in league play that cost the team their share of first place with Wilmington and Billerica. The game was exciting and well played except from a scoring standpoint. Andover spent more than half of the game in St. John's penalty area but were unable to convert.

Bike-A-Thon Scheduled

A Bike-A-Thon will be sponsored by the youth of St. Augustine's Church, Andover, in connection with the church's 125th anniversary.

On Sunday, Oct. 23, at 12:30, bicycle riders will participate in the Bike-A-Thon, which will start at Bald Hill and consist of 3 times around Harold Raf-ton Reservation. Adult supervisors, including medical personnel, will be positioned at check-points on the route.

Everyone in the parish community is invited to participate, either as a rider or as a sponsor, pledging a specified amount per mile toward a bicyclist.

Proceeds from the Bike-A-Thon will make up a contribution from the youth of the parish to the church on the occasion its 125th anniversary.

Information on the Bike-A-Thon including pledge blanks may be obtained at the C.C.D. office or from David Farrell, 6 Strawberry Hill Road or Charles Sirois, 51 Juliette St., Andover.

Warrior Booters

They ended up out-shooting St. John's 43 to 12 almost four to one, but St. John's goalie Civiello was outstanding in the nets making 18 saves.

Equally outstanding was Chuck Ness in the Andover nets as he made the save of the game on a point blank shot just directing it wide of the post. Chuck was nowhere near as busy during the game making only nine saves on the twelve shots of St. John's. The defenders had a lot to do with that as George Donovan, Bob Zwicker, Mike Silvermann and Bob Wilkins all played well. The Midfielders were the reason that the ball stayed in the St. John's penalty area so much. Dave Johnson, Tony Cammarata, and Carl Gutermann played almost the entire game and contained the breakout of the St. John's offense.

Rich O'Hara played his best game of the year and set up many of the scoring chances. Trying to convert those chances were Pete Chiklis, Dave Farrell, Gary Cohen, Tom Keefe, and David Yates who had one of the best chances of the game with a blistering shot that hit Civiello square in the chest and rebounded wide.

It was a very frustrating game but Andover will rebound and play this week's schedule in its normal exciting manner working for better results.

At this point, if the rains hold off, the schedule is as follows: Tuesday, Wilmington at home, Austin away, on Wednesday. Thursday sees Andover at Tewksbury, and Friday night Andover will be at Methuen for a night game with the JV's kicking off at 6:30 and the varsity at 7:30 p.m.

Continuing Tradition On Brown Turf

For the past three seasons, Brown University football coach John Anderson's squad enjoyed the services of one of the top receivers in college football.

Bob Farnham broke almost all of the Brown University pass receiving records, helping the Bruins turn their football program around.

This year another Farnham, Mark, is playing for the Bruins, and he is picking up where his brother left off.

With the Bruins trailing Yale by ten points, Mark Farnham was called on to go deep against the Yale secondary. In a matter of seconds, he had caught a fifty-two yard scoring pass, bringing Brown to within striking distance of the Bulldogs. The Bruins lost the opener 10-9. In the 10-7 win over Princeton, Farnham grabbed five receptions for 95 yards and was named ECAC "Rookie of the Week."

Though slightly smaller than his brother at '59, 170-pounds, the Andover native plays football almost exactly like his older brother. One reporter in the press box, amazed at the similarity, turned to one of his colleagues saying, "I thought he graduated last year." Mark even has the same number on his jersey as his older brother, forty-six.

Timed at 4.55 for forty yards, the sophomore split end does have more speed than Bob. Coach Anderson expects big things from the younger Farnham. "Mark has the potential to develop into as fine a receiver as his brother."

Right now, Mark Farnham is playing in the shadow of his older brother. But if he continues to play as he did in his first varsity games, Mark Farnham will be making a name for himself.

Raytheon Andover Gets Pact

Raytheon Company has been awarded an $83,509,820 contract for producibility engineering and planning for the Patriot air-defense system by the U.S. Army Missile Research and Development Command, Redstone Arsenal, Alabama.

Patriot is being developed for defense against advanced aircraft of the 1980's and beyond. Currently in engineering development, Patriot is in a flight test program at the Army's White Sands Missile Range, New Mexico.

Raytheon's Missile Systems Division, Bedford, Mass., is prime contractor for the new system. Martin Marietta Aerospace, Orlando, Fla., is the principal subcontractor on the program.

Work on the contract will be done at Andover, Bedford, Waltham, and Wayland, and at Orlando, Florida.

YBA Hoop Program At YMCA

YBA basketball — now beginning its third season — will be offered for the first time at the Andover-North Andover YMCA.

Sign-ups are now being accepted. All registrations are on a first-come basis and only at the Haverhill Street facility in Andover. Registration deadline is October 27.

The concept of a "fair play" basketball program in which every boy or girl plays was developed jointly by the national YMCA and the NBA Players Association. Paul Silas of the Seattle Super-Sonics is president of the Association. Other officers are Wes Unseld, Washington; John Havlicek, Boston; and Bob Lanier, Detroit.

YBA team squads are composed of nine players and each team member must play a specified amount of time. T-shirts and official YBA patches are furnished to each player.

Some 500 YMCAs and 100,000 youngsters across the country have played YBA basketball one or more of the past two years. The program will be offered at the Brook Street, Andover, YMCA facility for boys with any category of YMCA

The Gibson House, one of the first houses built in Back Bay Boston and the only Victorian period townhouse open to the public, is open daily except Monday, 2 to 5. The house at 137 Beacon St., is furnished as it was lived in by the Gibson family.

membership in Grades 3 and 4, 5 and 6, and 7-9; also at the Haverhill Street YMCA building for full privilege YMCA members only, with teams for boys in Grades 3 and 4, 5 and 6, and 7-9 and girls in Grades 3 and 4 and 5 and 6.

There are no tryouts in YBA. Each child will be assigned to a team and will have equal opportunity to play.

In addition to players, the league will require coaches, referees and other volunteers. A clinic conducted by a Celtics player will be available to all.

YBA players will receive basketball YBA T-shirts, player handbooks written by the NBA stars, registration cards and player certificates.

Parents and other adults in the program will view special training films to fully understand the concept of YBA basketball and its "values" orientation.

For detailed information on YBA basketball, contact the Andover-North Andover Y.

West Upsets Oliver

Andover's West Eighth Grade football team upset previously unbeaten Oliver Jr. High of Lawrence by an 18-14 margin in a fantastic fourth quarter comeback at Andover on Wednesday.

The opening stanza found West taking the opening kickoff and driving the length of the field for a touchdown. With a first and ten at the Oliver 27 yard line, Russel Lewis took a pitch from his quarterback and romped 27 yards for a touchdown. The point after failed and West had a 6-0 lead after one period.

The second period saw Oliver go in front for the first time as they took advantage of a major penalty by West on a third down and long situation to gain a first down. This kept the drive alive resulting in the tying touchdown as John Jones squirted through tackle for a one yard T.D. Charlie White followed with a plunge for the extra points giving the visitors an 8-6 lead at half time.

The third period found Oliver driving the length of the field with Charlie White going in from 13 yards out. The try for the extra points failed and Oliver led going into the fourth period 14-6.

West took the kickoff to start the fourth period and had to begin on their own nine yard line. Russ Lewis made things happen quickly as he took a pitch-out and swung his own left end for a 91 yard romp. The try for the extra points failed and West was on the short end of a 14-12 score.

Oliver took the ensuing kick and failed to do anything with it. A punt attempt went over the kicker's head and he was buried on his own 37 yard line.

West gained seven yards on the first two plays when a third and three situation found West execute a perfect screen as Ted Kelley took the hand-off and faded to pass with the entire Oliver line in pursuit. Just when it appeared Kelley would be dropped for a big loss, he found Lewis free out in the flat and he gathered the ball in for a 30 yard touchdown with some nifty foot work on the sidelines. Lewis was almost dropped twice, but managed to elude defenders twice to go in for the winning touchdown.

Oliver did get the ball back on the kick-off but were stopped as Lewis intercepted a fourth down pass.

Coaches Tisbert and Daren were extremely pleased with the performance of the entire team. They were especially pleased with the play of the defensive front of Tim Corkery, Tim Leeman, Scott Coots, and Charlie Kearns.

Bill Powell also picked off an Oliver pass on a Ted Kelley deflection for the sixth interception by West in three games.

Organ Series Concludes

The Methuen Memorial Music Hall's 1977 Fall Variety Series concludes on Wednesday evening, Oct. 26 at 8:30 presenting the Andover Trio, a chamber music group, which includes three members of the Phillips Academy music faculty.

Their program for piano, violin and cello includes: Trio No. 9 in B Major, Hob. XV, 20 (Allegro, Andante Cantabile, Finale-Allegro) — Franz Joseph Haydn; Trio No. 1 in D minor, Op. 49 (Molto allegro ad agitato, Andante con moto tranquillo, Scherzo — Leggiero e vivace, Allegro assai appassionato) — Felix Mendelssohn.

Barbara Kautzman, pianist, is a graduate of Oberlin Conservatory and the New England Conservatory. She has been a teaching assistant at the University of Louisville and associated with the fellowship program at Tanglewood.

Gerald Elias, violinist, is a graduate of Oberlin Conservatory and received his Master of Music degree from Yale University. He has studied with Ivan Galmian and Joseph Silverstein. Mr. Elias is a member of the Boston Symphony Orchestra.

William Thomas, cellist, attended Oberlin Conservatory and Pennsylvania State University. He is chairman of the Music Department of Phillips Academy, where he also teaches cello and directs the choir.

Clark Chrysler-Plymouth Now Showing 1978 Models

Now's the time to buy that new car you've been wanting. The new models in the Chrysler and Plymouth lines are in stock at Clark Chrysler-Plymouth. Visit their beautiful showrooms at 273 South Union Street, Lawrence and see them all. There's a new Chrysler or Plymouth to suit your family and your budget.

The new Chrysler LeBaron is the newest wagon on the market today. The elegant LeBaron Town and Country Wagon features carpet with skid strips in the cargo area and liftgate open warning lamp in the instrument cluster, plus options such as deep shag carpeting — a level of luxury seldom seen in a wagon. The LeBaron line also includes a 2-door and a 4-door, more evidence that the '78 LeBaron is the new symbol of leadership.

The Plymouth Arrow promises to be every bit as popular in '78 as it was last year. It is basically smart, nicely priced, exceptional value in a subcompact. The Plymouth Fury, Fury Sport, Fury Salon and Fury Suburbans are all value oriented, feature beautiful lines, exciting new interiors. And the Plymouth Trail Duster for 1978 is about as versatile vehicle as you can get... a race horse, a work horse, a pack horse.

Volare for '78 offers a host of new options in wagons, 2-door coupes and 4-door sedans. Now, you can order the exterior or interior separately in 3 distinctive trim levels — Premier, Custom or standard.

And for the person of independent taste and demanding standards, Chrysler offers the car that stands apart — Cordoba.

Stop in soon at Clark Chrysler-Plymouth, 273 South Union Street, Lawrence and see them all. Also a good selection of reconditioned used cars. Open weekdays 9 A.M. to 9 P.M. Saturdays 9 - 5. Tel. 688-6053.

Fall Workshops Offered

The Andover Recreation-Community Schools Department is accepting registrations for some of the Fall Workshops which begin later in the Fall program schedule.

The Older Resident "Easy Body Movement" classes with Harriet Ahouse began at Frye Circle on Tuesday, Oct. 11 from 1 p.m. to 2 p.m., and at the Haven on Oct. 18 from 10:45 a.m. to 11:45 a.m. These classes will run for ten weeks.

The "Macrame Christmas Workshop" for older residents, presented by Pat O'Neil, is offered on Monday, Dec. 5 at Frye Circle and on Wednesday, Dec. 7 at the Haven, will run from 10 a.m.-11:30 a.m. This one-time workshop will give participants an opportunity to make macrame gifts for the Christmas holiday. Students should have some knowledge of basic macrame knots.

Maxine Grogan's "Fabric Wall Hangings on Stretcher Frames" workshop on Saturday, Nov. 5 at the West Jr. High includes a demonstration followed by class involvement in assembling the stretcher frames with fabric. It is offered to adults from 10-11 a.m. and 3-6 graders from 12-2 p.m. Adults purchase $5 frame from Ms. Grogan; children's frames are included in tuition fee. An information sheet is available at the office.

Kathy Traugott's "Painting Workshop for Adults" on Nov. 19 from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. at the West Jr. High will be an all day event which will include an historical analysis slide show and student participation in some different approaches toward painting. Students will provide some materials.

A painting seminar for grades 4-6 where students will have the opportunity to mix their own paint, learn basic color theory, and use different paint applications, will be offered at the Doherty School on Saturday, Oct. 22 from 9:30 to 11:30 a.m. The class is designed to be an intense seminar directed at the art enjoying student. Children should bring a pad of paper approximately 11 x 14" large. Paint and brushes will be provided. Registration for the seminar will continue at the Recreation-Community Schools Department office on Bartlet Street until Friday at 4:30 p.m. or until the class is filled.

Families and friends are invited to join together to go "Christmas Caroling" throughout different areas of Andover on Sunday, Dec. 18 from 5 p.m. to 7 p.m. Rehearsals will be held on Wednesday Dec. 7 and 14 at the West Elementary School from 7:30-8:30 p.m.

Registrations and additional information can be obtained from the Recreation-Community Schools Office, 36 Bartlet Street, 475-5045.

Raytheon Earnings At Record

Raytheon Company today reported record third quarter earnings per share of $.97 versus last year's $.76, restated for a two-for-one stock split in June, 1977.

Net income rose 30 percent on a 15 percent increase in sales. For the quarter ended October 2, 1977, net income was a record $30,067,000 compared to $23,093,000 last year. Sales in the third quarter were $696,874,000 versus $604,198,000 a year ago.

The increases resulted principally from continued strong operating performances in government systems business and in commercial electronics, and from investment income.

For the first nine months, earnings were $82,588,000, or $2.68 a share, on sales of $2,071,253,000. This compares with earnings of $64,001,000, or $2.10 a share, restated for the stock split, on sales of $1,775,365,000 in the same period last year.

Per share earnings are computed on the average number of shares outstanding in the period. For the third quarter this amounted to 30,871,508 shares in 1977 and 30,549,566 in 1976.
